

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

* The Psalms in this Table are the Selections corresponding to the Introits the several Sundays and Holy Days of the year, as found in the first Prayer Book of Edward VI., except in the cases where no such Selection exists; and no other appropriate Selections have been taken; these are marked with an asterisk. The Hymns selected are either founded on portions of Holy Scripture occurring in the services of the day, (and these are marked thus †,) or are composed otherwise suitable. It is hoped the table may be of some use as an aid to the Clergy and Heads of Families in their choice of Psalms and Hymns for the services of the Sanctuary, and for Family Worship.

(1.) The Collect, Epistle and Gospel for the Feast of the Circumcision are to be used.

(2.) The Second Lessons for the Sunday are, A. M., Matt. 4 v. 12; P. M., 2 Cor. 4. The Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul is the Superior Day. See third page of cover.

CHRIST having Adam's nature, as we have, but incorrupt, deriveth not nature but incorruption, and that immediately from His own Person, into all that belong unto Him. As, therefore, we are really partakers of the body of sin and death, received from Adam; so except we be truly partakers of CHRIST, and as really possessed of His Spirit, all we speak of eternal life is but a dream. That which quickeneth us is the Spirit of the Second Adam, and his flesh that wherewith he quickeneth.—Hooker.

God alone is without sin, and the only man without sin is CHRIST, because CHRIST is also GOD.—Tertullian.

INCREASE OF DAYS THIS MONTH, AT

New-York, 37 m. morn., 35 m. aftern. | New-Orleans, 24 m. morn., 23 m. aftern.

There have been five Sundays in February once before in this Century, viz: in 824; and the circumstance will occur again in 1880.

(1) ASH WEDNESDAY.—PROPER PSALMS, A. M., 6, 32, 38; P. M., 102, 130, 143.—SPECIAL PRAYERS, before the General Thanksgiving.

(2) LENT.—The Collect for Ash Wednesday is said every day, after the Collect for the day.

(3) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders" is to be used daily during this week.

Go, become CHRIST's disciple: every one who wishes is permitted; every one's past sins are forgiven from the moment that he resolves to conform to the precepts and example of his Saviour. He hath said, "Him that cometh to Me, I will in no wise cast out." Him that cometh to Me in humility and patience, I will in no wise cast out. In no wise, in no resentment of any crimes, not even of blasphemy and infidelity previous to his coming, will I exclude from the light of My doctrine, from the benefits of My Atonement, from the glories of My Kingdom.—3ishop Horsley.

The belief of the eternity of torment is necessary to deter us from committing sin, and to quicken us to holiness of life, and a speedy repentance for sin committed. "For the wages of sin is death;" nothing can bring us to those everlasting flames but sin, no sin but that which is unrepented of; nothing can save that man from the never-dying worm, who dieth in his sins; and no other reason can bring him thither, but because he sinned and repented not. They which imagine the pains inflicted for sin to be either small or short, have but a slender motive to innocence or repentance; but such as firmly believe them sharp and endless, have by virtue of that faith, within themselves a proper and natural spur and incitement to avoid them; for who can "dwell with everlasting burnings?" (Isa. xxxiii. 14).—Bishop Pearson.

INCREASE OF DAYS THIS MONTH, AT

New-York, 37 m. morn., 35 m. aftern. | New-Orleans, 24 m. morn., 23 m. aftern.

There have been five Sundays in February once before in this Century, viz: in 1524; and the circumstance will occur again in 1880.

(1) ASH WEDNESDAY.—PROPER PSALMS, A. M., 6, 32, 38; P. M., 102, 130, 143.—SPECIAL PRAYERS, before the General Thanksgiving.

(2) LENT.—The Collect for Ash Wednesday is said every day, after the Collect for the day.

(3) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders" is to be used daily during this week.

Go, become CHRIST's disciple: every one who wishes is permitted; every one's past sins are forgiven from the moment that he resolves to conform to the precepts and example of his Saviour. He hath said, "Him that cometh to Me, I will in no wise cast out." Him that cometh to Me in humility and patience, I will in no wise cast out. In no wise, in no resentment of any crimes, not even of blasphemy and infidelity previous to his coming, will I exclude from the light of My doctrine, from the benefits of My Atonement, from the glories of My Kingdom.—Bishop Horsley.

(1.) GOOD FRIDAY.—PROPER PSALMS, A. M., 22, 40, 54; P. M., 64, 88.

(2.) EASTER DAY.—ANTHEMS instead of the Venite. PROPER PSALMS, A. M., 2, 57, 111; P. M., 113, 114, 118. PROPER PREFACE in the Communion Office. The NICENE CREED may with great propriety be said, at least on this and the other high festivals, and on all Holy days which relate to the Blessed Saviour.

Blessed Jesus! Raise thou me up from the death of sin to the life of righteousness, that I may for ever walk in the land of the living, abhorring the works of death and darkness: that as I am, by thy miraculous mercy, partaker of the first, so also I may be accounted worthy of the second Resurrection; and as by faith, hope, charity, and obedience, I receive the fruit of thy miracles in this life, so in the other, I may partake of thy glories, which is a mercy above all miracles. Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean! Amen.—Bishop J. Taylor.

Lead us, dearest GOD, from grace to grace, from imperfection to strength, from acts to habits, from habits to confirmation in grace; that we may also pass into the region of comfort, receiving the earnest of the Spirit, and the adoption of Sons; till, by such a signature, we be consigned to glory, and enter into the possession of the inheritance prepared in the kingdom of thy Son, and in the fruition of the felicities of Thee, O gracious Father, GOD Eternal. Amen.—Bishop J. Taylor.

(1.) TRINITY SUNDAY.—PROPER PREFACE in the Communion Office.

GOD is the Father of all men by creation and providence, and He is especially the Father of the faithful by regeneration and adoption. Whence now as these actions of creation, regeneration, and adoption, are common to the whole Trinity, so also is the title of Father common to the whole Trinity: God, the first person, is indeed eminently called the Father, but that is not in respect of us, but in respect of CHRIST, the only begotten Son from all eternity: in respect of us, the whole Trinity is "Our Father which art in Heaven;" and when we pray so, we pray both to God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost, to all the three Persons.—Bp. Ezekiel Hopkins.

Faith is the vision of the Kingdom of Grace, it is the eye of the new creature, that quick-sight eye, which pierces all the visible Heavens, and sees above them; which looks to things that are not seen, and is the evidence of things not seen, and sees Him who is invisible.—Archbishop Leighton.

True Saving Faith, at the same time that it informs the understanding, influences the will and affections; "it enlightens the eyes of the heart," says the Apostle, (Eph. i. 18.) It is there—in the heart, that the Christian Man believeth: and "if thou believest with thine heart, thou shalt be saved;" while Infidelity proceedeth from an averseness of our affections—"from an evil heart of unbelief"—Glouc. Ridley.

Hope is that part of a living Faith by which we expect things to come according to the promises of God. It lies between the two extremes of presumption and despair. * * It has the same effect in the Christian as in the husbandman, who plougheth and soweth in expectation of the harvest; and spares neither labour nor expense. So the Christian is never weary of well-doing, knowing that we shall reap if we faint not. It bears suffering with cheerfulness, as knowing that "all the suffering of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that shall be revealed in us." It is the staff of life to support the steps of those who would otherwise faint in their journey through this wilderness: it presents daily to the mind the promises and blessings of Canaan.—Elenchus Mat. Theol.

DECREASE OF DAYS THIS MONTH, AT

New-York, 30 m. morn., 50 m. aftern. | New-Orleans, 16 m. morn., 37 m. aftern.

(1.) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders," is to be used daily during this week.

Charity is the love of God for himself, and the love of man for the love of God, which is best shown by helping him forward in the way of Salvation. No man loves God who does not love his neighbor; nor can any love his neighbor truly, who does not first love God. Charity gives perfection to the will, as faith does to the understanding. Faith begets charity, and charity increases faith; which, without charity, will go out, as a lamp that has no oil. By sin faith is darkened, and by degrees totally extinguished. Faith increased, renders charity vigorous. Faith is the root; the works of charity are the branches bearing fruit: and the branches can bear no fruit, but so far only as the root supplies them with sap.—Elenchus Mat. Theol.

New-York, 34 m. morn., 46 m. aftern | New-Orleans, 21 m. morn., 33 m. aftern.

Morning and evening, twice a day, the priests offered up their incense to God that both parts of the day might be consecrated to Him, who was the maker and giver of their time. This incense under the law, represents our prayers offered to God under the Gospel. These Almighty God expects that we should, all His Church over, send up to him morning and evening. The ejaculatory elevations of our hearts should be perpetual: but, if twice a-day we do not present God with our solemn invocation, we make the Gospel less efficacious than the law; and can we reasonably think, that Almighty God will accept of less now than would content him then?—Burkitt.

DECREASE OF DAYS THIS MONTH, AT

New-York, 35 m. morn., 24 m. aftern. | New-Orleans, 25 m. morn., 14 m. aftern.

(1.) THANKSGIVING DAY, unless some other day be appointed by the Civil Authority.—SPECIAL SENTENCES: PSALM instead of Venite: One of the SELECTIONS: LESSONS, Deuteronomy 8; 1 Thessalonians 5, 13-24. SPECIAL THANKSGIVING, after the General Thanksgiving: COLLECT, EPISTLE, and GOSPEL.

(2.) SUNDAY BEFORE ADVENT.—The Collect, Epistle and Gospel for the Twenty-fifth Sunday after Trinity are to be used.

(3.) ADVENT.—The Collect for the first Sunday in Advent, is repeated daily in Advent after the Collect for the day.

Every work which is a heavenly work, every work which is done in the service of the kingdom of God, belongs especially to a Sunday. * * We have two sorts of Sunday work, prayer and other works of devotion, and works of love. Both of them form the right employment of the earthly Sabbath, and both of them will form the never-ceasing employment of the Sabbath, which the Saints will enjoy in heaven.—A. W. Hare.

(1.) GOOD FRIDAY.—PROPER PSALMS, A. M., 22, 40, 54; P. M., 64, 88.

(2.) EASTER DAY.—ANTHEMS instead of the Venite. PROPER PSALMS, A. M., 2, 57, 111; P. M., 113, 114, 118. PROPER PREFACE in the Communion Office. The NICENE CREED may with great propriety be said, at least on this and the other high festivals, and on all Holy days which relate to the Blessed Saviour.

Blessed JESUS! Raise thou me up from the death of sin to the life of righteousness, that I may for ever walk in the land of the living, abhorring the works of death and darkness: that as I am, by thy miraculous mercy, partaker of the first, so also I may be accounted worthy of the second Resurrection; and as by faith, hope, charity, and obedience, I receive the fruit of thy miracles in this life, so in the other, I may partake of thy glories, which is a mercy above all miracles. Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean! Amen.—Bishop J. Taylor.

(1.) TRINITY SUNDAY.—PROPER PREFACE in the Communion Office.

GOD is the Father of all men by creation and providence, and He is especially the Father of the faithful by regeneration and adoption. Whence now as these actions of creation, regeneration, and adoption, are common to the whole Trinity, so also is the title of Father common to the whole Trinity: God, the first person, is indeed eminently called the Father, but that is not in respect of us, but in respect of CHRIST, the only begotten Son from all eternity: in respect of us, the whole Trinity is "Our Father which art in Heaven;" and when we pray so, we pray both to God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost, to all the three Persons.—Bp. Ezekiel Hopkins.

DECREASE OF DAYS THIS MONTH, AT

New-York, 23 m. morn., 19 m. aftern. | New-Orleans, 16 m. morn., 11 m. aftern.

(1.) The Feast of St. James is the Superior Day. See third page of cover.

Faith is the vision of the Kingdom of Grace, it is the eye of the new creature, that quick-sight eye, which pierces all the visible Heavens, and sees above them; which looks to things that are not seen, and is the evidence of things not seen, and sees Him who is invisible.—Archbishop Leighton.

True Saving Faith, at the same time that it informs the understanding, influences the will and affections; "it enlightens the eyes of the heart," says the Apostle, (Eph. i. 18.) It is there—in the heart, that the Christian Man believeth: and "if thou believest with thine heart, thou shalt be saved;" while Infidelity proceeds from an averseness of our affections—"from an evil heart of unbelief"—Gloric. Ridley.

(1.) TRINITY SUNDAY.—PROPER PREFACE in the Communion Office.

GOD is the Father of all men by creation and providence, and He is especially the Father of the faithful by regeneration and adoption. Whence now as these actions of creation, regeneration, and adoption, are common to the whole Trinity, so also is the title of Father common to the whole Trinity: God, the first person, is indeed eminently called the Father, but that is not in respect of us, but in respect of CHRIST, the only begotten Son from all eternity: in respect of us, the whole Trinity is "Our Father which art in Heaven;" and when we pray so, we pray both to God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost, to all the three Persons.—Bp. Ezekiel Hopkins.

Faith is the vision of the Kingdom of Grace, it is the eye of the new creature, that quick-sight eye, which pierces all the visible Heavens, and sees above them; which looks to things that are not seen, and is the evidence of things not seen, and sees Him who is invisible.—Archbishop Leighton.

True Saving Faith, at the same time that it informs the understanding, influences the will and affections; "it enlightens the eyes of the heart," says the Apostle, (Eph. i. 18.) It is there—in the heart, that the Christian Man believeth: and "if thou believest with thine heart, thou shalt be saved;" while Infidelity proceedeth from an averseness of our affections—"from an evil heart of unbelief"—Glouc. Ridley.

Hope is that part of a living Faith by which we expect things to come according to the promises of God. It lies between the two extremes of presumption and despair. * * It has the same effect in the Christian as in the husbandman, who plougheth and soweth in expectation of the harvest; and spares neither labour nor expense. So the Christian is never weary of well-doing, knowing that we shall reap if we faint not. It bears suffering with cheerfulness, as knowing that "all the suffering of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that shall be revealed in us." It is the staff of life to support the steps of those who would otherwise faint in their journey through this wilderness: it presents daily to the mind the promises and blessings of Canaan.—Elenchus Mat. Theol.

(1.) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders," is to be used daily during this week.

Charity is the love of God for himself, and the love of man for the love of God, which is best shown by helping him forward in the way of Salvation. No man loves God who does not love his neighbor; nor can any love his neighbor truly, who does not first love God. Charity gives perfection to the will, as faith does to the understanding. Faith begets charity, and charity increases faith; which, without charity, will go out, as a lamp that has not oil. By sin faith is darkened, and by degrees totally extinguished. Faith increased, renders charity vigorous. Faith is the root; the works of charity are the branches bearing fruit: and the branches can bear no fruit, but so far only as the root supplies them with sap.—Elonchus Mat. Theol.

DECREASE OF DAYS THIS MONTH, AT

New-York, 34 m. morn., 46 m. aftern | New-Orleans, 21 m. morn., 33 m. aftern.

Morning and evening, twice a day, the priests offered up their incense to God that both parts of the day might be consecrated to Him, who was the maker and giver of their time. This incense under the law, represents our prayers offered to God under the Gospel. These Almighty God expects that we should, all His Church over, send up to him morning and evening. The ejaculatory elevations of our hearts should be perpetual: but, if twice a-day we do not present God with our solemn invocation, we make the Gospel less efficacious than the law; and can we reasonably think, that Almighty God will accept of less now than would content him then?—Burkitt.

(2.) SUNDAY BEFORE ADVENT.—The Collect, Epistle and Gospel for the Twenty-fifth Sunday after Trinity are to be used.

(3.) ADVENT.—The Collect for the first Sunday in Advent, is repeated daily in Advent after the Collect for the day.

Every work which is a heavenly work, every work which is done in the service of the kingdom of God, belongs especially to a Sunday. * * We have two sorts of Sunday work, prayer and other works of devotion, and works of love. Both of them form the right employment of the earthly Sabbath, and both of them will form the never-ceasing employment of the Sabbath, which the Saints will enjoy in heaven.—A. W. Hare.

The Protestant Episcopal Church

IN THE

United States of America.

THIS Church traces her descent from the Apostles of our LORD and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST, through the Church of England, to which she has declared herself indebted, under God, for her first foundation, and a long continuance of nursing care and protection. It consists now of twenty-nine confederated Dioceses, under the care of Bishops; using the same Liturgy; and yielding obedience to the Canons enacted by the General Convention.

The General Convention.

This body, which meets triennially, is composed of the House of Bishops, consisting of all the Diocesan and Missionary Bishops in the United States; and of the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies, consisting of four Clergymen and four Laymen from each Diocese. It legislates for the American Church within the limits of the United States, but can make no alteration in the Constitution, or in the Liturgy and Offices, unless the same has been adopted in one Convention, and submitted to all the Dioceses, and afterwards adopted in another Convention.

Secretary of the House of Bishops: The Rev. Jonathan M. Wainwright, D.D., New-York.

N. B.—It must be borne in mind that the Parochial Returns of the Clergy, even in the Dioceses from which we have the fullest reports, are in many cases defective in one or more particulars. It is much to be desired that greater attention should be given to this subject; and also, that every Journal of Convention should be accompanied by a full Statistical Table. Until this is the case, the General Table can exhibit only an approximation to the truth.

Festivals and Fasts of the Church.

Advent.—A time appointed by the Church as a preparation for the approaching feast of the Nativity of our Blessed Saviour.

Christmas.—A festival celebrated on the 25th of December, in commemoration of the Birth of Christ.

The Circumcision of Christ.—A feast celebrated on the 1st day of January, in commemoration of Christ's incorporation into the Jewish Church by the bloody rite of circumcision.

Epiphany.—A feast celebrated the twelfth day after Christmas, of our Saviour's Nativity, wherein he was manifested to the Gentiles, by the appearance of a miraculous star, conducting the wise men to the place of His abode.

Septuagesima Sunday.—The third Sunday before Lent; so called because it was about seventy days before Easter.

Sixagesima.—The second Sunday before Lent; so called as being about the sixtieth day before Easter.

Quinquagesima.—The next Sunday before Lent; so called from its being about the fiftieth day before Easter.

Ash Wednesday.—The first day of Lent; so called from a custom in the ancient Church of fasting in sackcloth with ashes upon the head, in token of humiliation.

Lent.—A time of abstinence and humiliation for forty days before Easter, in memory of our Saviour's miraculous fasting forty days and forty nights in the wilderness.

Good Friday.—The day of our Saviour's sufferings on the cross, when He was crucified between two thieves for us men, and for our salvation.

Easter.—The day which commemorates our Saviour's resurrection from the dead, when He rose again for our justification.

Ascension Day.—A solemn festival, appointed in commemoration of the miraculous ascension of our Saviour into heaven, in sight of his Apostles, forty days after the resurrection.

Whit Sunday.—A solemn festival, instituted to commemorate the descent of the Holy Ghost, in the shape of fiery tongues, upon the Apostles; so called from the admission of catechumens, clothed in white robes, to the sacrament of baptism on the eve of this festival. It answers to the Pentecost of the Jews.

Trinity Sunday.—The first Sunday after Whit-Sunday, sacred to the ever-blessed Trinity: Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

The design of the Feasts and Fasts of the Church, from Advent to Trinity, is to commemorate Christ's living among us, to celebrate all the remarkable events of His life by which He accomplished our redemption: and in the portion of the year, from Trinity to Advent, the Church instructs us to live after the example of Christ. Having, in the first part of the year, learned the doctrines of our religion, we are taught in the second what we are to practise, that we may build upon our faith a holy and vigorous life.

STANFORD & SWORDS,

137 BROADWAY, NEW-YORK,

WOULD call the attention of the PUBLIC, and especially of CHURCHMEN, to their Old Establishment, where long experience has enabled them to provide everything desirable in the line of Church Books, both English and American. Their stock of English Theology is large and constantly increasing, while their Press is steadily engaged in the production of STANDARD WORKS IN EVERY DEPARTMENT OF CHURCH LITERATURE.

S. & S. would also invite attention to their new and beautiful edition of carefully revised and compared with the Standard, by a Clergyman appointed for that purpose by the Ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese. The Mechanical execution of these books has NEVER BEEN EQUALLED in this country, and the beauty and durability of the Binding, render them superior to any other books now offered for sale. # CLERICAL TAILOR.

NELSON JARVIS, MERCHANT TAILOR, NEW-YORK,

HAS REMOVED HIS BUSINESS FROM 130 BROADWAY, TO 120 BLEECKER, CORNER OF WOOSTER-STREET,

Which has now become the centre of New-York, and is convenient to the most fashionable streets and places of the west end of the town. He respectfully invites the attention of the Rev'd the Clergy and Laity of this city, and throughout the United States, to the following particulars relative to his business, assuring them that every effort will be made on his part, to render his Establishment worthy of that confidence and support which it has so long possessed. And in order to make his business better understood, he has divided it into two distinct parts, (namely,) "Clerical" and "Citizen's" Department.

The Clerical Department embraces the following articles, to wit:—

|                        |
|------------------------|
| CLERICAL FROCK COATS,  |
| " WAISTCOATS or VESTS, |
| " GOWNS,               |
| " SURPLICES,           |
| " CASSOCKS,            |
| " SPENCERS,*           |
| " SCARFS,              |
| " BANDS.               |

The Citizen's Department embraces every article requisite for a gentleman's wardrobe.

He would here call attention to a NEW and BEAUTIFUL SILK which he has introduced for "clerical gowns." It is exceeding rich, does not rattle when worn, and will last many years longer than the article heretofore worn in that robe.

Mr. Jarvis desires also to remark, for the benefit of persons abroad, both of the Clergy and Laity, who may withhold their orders on account of the impracticability of sending correct measures, that the exact height, without boots, and the size of breast, and waist, taken under the coat and over the vest, together with a full description of the form, namely, whether the figure is erect, or stooping, and if stooping, whether much, or partially, is a sufficient measure and direction to cut all robes, or fashionable citizens' garments of every description.

* A substitute for the Cassock in summer.

The College of St. James.

WASHINGTON COUNTY, MARYLAND.

THE DIOCESAN COLLEGE.

(See page 26 of the Almanac.)

THE Ninth Annual Session will open on Monday, October 6th, 1851, and continue till the next "Commencement Day," the last Thursday in July, 1852. New students are recommended to enter at the opening of the session, but are received at any time they apply, and the charge is estimated from the date of their entrance.

THE COLLEGE

has the usual number of classes, affords all the opportunities for a complete education, and at the successful termination of the Collegiate course, confers on its graduates the usual academical degrees.

THE GRAMMAR SCHOOL,

immediately adjoining the College, and under the supervision of the Rector, but under distinct discipline, receives lads at the beginning of their academical course, and prepares them for the Collegiate classes. The oversight and direction of the Professors of the College secure special advantages to the pupils in the Grammar School.

IN THE MERCANTILE CLASSES,

the study of the Greek Language is omitted, and its place supplied by additional studies in Modern Languages, Book-keeping, Commercial Arithmetic, Statistics, &c.

KEMP HALL, a new building, 90 feet by 49, will be ready for occupation in the course of the next session. In addition to the former corps of Professors, the Trustees have recently appointed HUGH DAVEY EVANS, LL. D.; Lecturer on Civil and Ecclesiastical Laws; and JOHN H. ALEXANDER, LL. D., Lecturer on Physics and Chemistry.

The location of the College is entirely healthful, and by its distance from towns and villages, very favorable to good morals and order.

The whole annual charge, the same in the College and Grammar School, for the session of ten months, is two hundred and twenty-five dollars payable semi-annually in advance.

Applications, &c., to be made to

CLASSICAL AND COMMERCIAL SCHOOL.

FOUNDED 1844,—INCORPORATED 1847.

THE location of ST. TIMOTHY'S HALL is exceedingly salubrious, and enjoys all the advantages, without the discomforts, of a more Northern climate. It is in the healthful region six miles northwest of Baltimore, upon a ridge of five hundred feet above the Chesapeake Bay, and commands a view of the land and harbor, and the adjacent country, to the distance of twenty miles. It is easy of access, and in full view of the busy world of commerce, and agriculture, it is sufficiently removed from the vicious influences, and dangerous temptations, which beset the young in large towns and villages. The buildings have been erected within the past five years, and were designed for the purposes for which they are used. The main building contains the Halls for study, Dormitories, the private rooms occupied by the advanced students, the apartments of the Professors, and the Instructors, and the Chapel for Family worship. In the rear of this, are the Refectory, and the rooms occupied for the various domestic purposes, the Infirmary, &c. Adjoining the Hall is an Edifice, containing three large recitation rooms for Professors. About two hundred yards distant, stands St. Timothy's Church, the parish church of the students, and the students in the vicinity. This is built of stone, accommodates five hundred persons, and is unsurpassed in beauty by any rural church in the state of Maryland. The grounds contain eighty acres, and furnish every variety of play-ground, adapted to all the usual athletic sports of the young.

There are two divisions of the Institution, forming two Academic families, occupying different wings of the buildings, under distinct discipline, but each supervised by the Rector. The Junior and the Senior departments—Juniors are received as young as seven years. Seniors not older than seventeen, unless they bring testimonials of moral and industrious habits.

In addition to the Classical and Mathematical course, a Department has been organized for those Students who are preparing for Commercial or Agricultural pursuits. It is conducted by Professors, and embraces the Modern Languages, the higher branches of Belles-Lettres and Science; Book keeping and Commercial Accounts. Students graduating in this department are entitled to a diploma.

The Religious instruction is in strict accordance with the doctrines of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Terms—$200 per Session, 10 months; Entrance Fee, $20. The Session commences first Monday in October, and continues to July 31st. August and September being Vacation.

Students are received during the Session and charged from the day of admission. Circulars, containing views of the buildings and a full description of the mode of study and mode of government, apply to the Rector.

RECTORY SCHOOL.

HAMDEN, CONN.

THIS Institution has been in operation for eight years, and may be considered as firmly established. Its course of instruction comprises studies necessary to prepare for admission to any of our Colleges, or requisite for a thorough practical education. The Rector is aided by an Assistant who has been engaged in teaching for several years, and has paid particular attention to the subject of Mathematics; while the modern languages are taught by a competent Foreign Teacher. The number of pupils is limited, and applications are not desired for boys younger than seven or older than twelve years, at the time of their first admission to the school. Particular attention is paid to physical education; all healthful mental development being deemed, to a great degree, dependent upon it. Beside their ordinary sports, the boys are exercised in a military drill; and, in Summer, rowing and bathing form a part of their daily recreations.

The Rectory School is sufficiently retired, yet easy of access; situated five miles north of New Haven, on the line of the Canal Railroad.

The school year comprises three sessions, of fourteen weeks each, commencing successively on the first Tuesday of May, the third Tuesday of September, and the first Tuesday of January. The terms of admission are $85 per Session, payable always in advance; and this will include tuition, board, washing, mending, fuel, and lights. All necessary books, stationery, medical attendance, &c., will be furnished, at an extra charge.

Modern languages, $7 each, per Session. Drawing and Perspective with Sketching from Nature, for which good advantages are afforded, $5 per Session.

P Pupils are expected to return to their homes at vacations.

No boys will be allowed to leave school during the Session, except in cases of absolute necessity! All parents cannot but see the propriety of this regulation. It is desirable, also, when practicable, that friends wishing to visit pupils during the Session, should do it on SATURDAYS. A regard for ORDER and PUNCTUALITY should be deemed THE FIRST LESSON in a course of PROPER EDUCATION. Will not parents help to impress it, by always sending their sons, when possible, on THE FIRST DAY OF THE SESSION?

D A plain uniform dress is worn by the pupils. Only one suit is required, when a boy is first admitted. It is expected, however, that subsequently all suits shall be uniform; and that all these shall be furnished at the school. The whole cost of uniform, including cap, will not exceed $10. For ordinary summer dress, brown linen jacket and pantaloons are desired; the jacket to be single-breasted, and with rolling collar.

T To avoid mistakes, and loss of clothing, it is particularly requested that all articles of apparel should be distinctly marked—not even woollen clothes excepted.

For further particulars apply to the Rector,

C. W. EVEREST.

P. S. It is expected that, when pupils are to be removed, notice shall be given before the close of the current Session, in order that their places may be supplied. It is hoped that so reasonable a request will not be disregarded.

Extract from the address of the 'Bishop' of Pennsylvania, in the convention of 1848.

"The female school, known as the Retreat, in School-house Lane, near Germantown, has been signally favored, not only by the smiles of Divine Providence, but also with the influence of the Divine Spirit. Considerably more than a third of all the resident or boarding pupils, have, within the last two months, been confirmed, and have also become communicants, under circumstances which have inspired me with the most lively hopes in respect to their future character and influence as Christian women. The order and spirit prevailing throughout the school have been excellent; the discipline is quiet, effective, and eminently domestic; the position of the building and ground is alike beautiful and healthy; and the patronage bestowed upon it, most encouraging."

REV. WM. H. CLARKE, A. M., Chaplain.

The ensuing School Year will commence on the last Thursday, or 25th of September, 1851. Boarding, and English Education, $240 per annum.

The Trustees of the "Patapsco Female Institute" report, "that under the superintendence of the distinguished individual by whom it is now conducted, it has, we believe, justly acquired an eminence, as a Collegiate Female Establishment, not only unequalled in the State of Maryland, but unsurpassed by any in the Union."

REPORT OF RIGHT REV. BISHOP WHITTINGHAM, VISITOR.

"The late Examination has afforded still greater evidence, if more we needed, of the competence of Mrs. Phelps to sustain an institution inferior to none in the country of its kind."

“Pure Wine for Sacramental Use,” AND “MEDICAL PURPOSES.”

WINE, whatever may be its quality, sweet or dry, strong or weak, white or red, if it be the juice of the grape alone, after due fermentation, without the admixture of brandy, is what may be properly termed PURE JUICE.

To meet the difficulty stated to exist, with regard to procuring such wine for this purpose, the subscriber has made arrangements by which he is at all times prepared to supply it in any quantity required, whether in cask or bottle. The description suited for COMMUNION use, is Maderia or Malmsey; the former is dry, and the latter sweet.

WINE FOR MEDICINAL PURPOSES.

It may not be out of place to remark, that all wines for this purpose should be of the best kind, perfectly mature, free from acidity, and not too old. The stimulating, and some of the vinous properties, most desired in such cases, will have been deprived of a part of their activity in case the wine is extremely old. Port, Sherry, and Madeira are considered the most suitable for this purpose.

The smallest quantity can be sent with perfect safety to the most distant part of the Union.

* 1-15 indicates that the first 14 verses are to be read. All similar abbreviations are to be interpreted in like manner.

Such and so great was the love of God the Father towards us, that He spared not His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all; and so transcendent was the love of the Son of God towards the sons of men, that He desired not to be spared; but rather than they should be under the power of death, was of Himself most willing to suffer death for them; which seeing in that infinite nature, which by eternal government He received from His Father, He could not do, He resolved in the appointed time to take unto Himself a mother, and out of her substance to have a body framed unto Himself, wherein "He might become obedient unto death, even the death of the cross," for our redemption.

Archbishop Usher.

* When a Sunday and a Holy-day concur, if the Holy-day be the Superior Day, Lessons for that day are given in the Table, except when they are taken from the Apocalypse; in that case the First Lessons for the Sunday are given in the Table, and the First Lessons for the Holy-day in a note at the foot of the page.

(1) The Feast of the Purification is the Superior Day; the First Lessons for which are, A. M., Wisdom 9; P. M., Wisdom 12.

To awake from spiritual slumber, to arise from dead works, are the terms which CHRIST doth offer that eternal, happy life; for as the pains and ignominies of His death will no wise avail those who are not conformable to death in dying to sin and mortifying their lusts, so will not they be concerned in the joys and glories of His Resurrection, who are not planted in the likeness thereof, by renovation of their minds, and reformation of their lives; "for He died, so He was also raised for us, that we should not henceforth live to ourselves, but unto Him that died and rose again for us." Dr. Is. Barrow.

Never indulge in what appears to be a little sin; it will harden the heart and lead to greater.

(1) ASH-WEDNESDAY. PROPER PSALMS, A. M., 6, 32, 38; P. M., 102, 130, 143.—SPECIAL PRAYERS before the General Thanksgiving.

(2) LENT.—The Collect for Ash-Wednesday is to be said every day, after the Collect for the day.

(3) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders" is to be used daily during this week.

Come therefore unto Him, all ye that are heavy laden with your sins. By His own gracious voice He called you while on earth; by the voice of His ambassadors He continueth to call you; He calleth you now by mine. Come unto Him, and He shall give you rest.—rest from the hard servitude of sin, and appetite, and guilty fear. That yoke is heavy,—that burden is intolerable. His yoke is easy, and His burden light. But come in sincerity; dare not to come in hypocrisy and dissimulation. Bishop Horsley.

(1) GOOD FRIDAY.—PROPER PSALMS, A. M., 22, 40, 54; P. M., 64, 88.

(2) EASTER DAY.—ANTHEMS instead of the Vexilla. PROPER PSALMS, A. M., 2, 57, 111; P. M., 113, 114, 118. PROPER PREFACE in the Communion Office. The Nicene Creed may with great propriety be said, at least on this and the other high festivals, and on all Holy days which relate to the Blessed Saviour.

CHRIST, by His life and death, merited so much for us, because the same Person that so lived and died for us was God as well as man; and every action that He did, and every passion that He suffered, was done and suffered by Him that was God as well as man. And hence it is, that CHRIST, of all persons in the world, is so fit, yea, only fit, to be my Redeemer, Mediator and Surety, because He alone is both God and man in one Person. Bishop Beveridge.

At the foot of the Cross, in all humility and in all adoration, we have learned at once the depth and height of human nature; we have learned to think all wisdom but foolishness for the knowledge of Christ; all purity but sin, unwashed by His atonement; all hope in earth, of all hopes the most miserable, but in the faith of His blessed Resurrection; content to bear the struggles of life, as His command; and submitting to the grave, with a consciousness that it can sting no more; "sown in corruption, to be raised in incorruption; sown in dishonor, to be raised in glory; sown in weakness, to be raised in

(1) WHITSUN-DAY.—PROPER PSALMS, A. M., 48, 68; P. M., 104, 145. PROPER PREFACE in the Communion Office. One of the two prayers "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders" is to be used daily during this week.

(2) TRINITY SUNDAY.—PROPER PREFACE in the Communion Office.

(3) The Feast of St. Peter is the Superior Day; the First Lessons for which are, A. M., Ecclesiasticus 15; P. M., Ecclesiasticus 19. The Second Lessons for the Sunday are, A. M., Acts 10; P. M., 2 Tim. 2.

God's Spirit does not destroy reason, but heightens it. God opens the heart and creates a new one; and without this creation, this new principle of life, we may hear the Word of God, but we can never understand it; we hear the sound, but are never the better. Unless there be in our hearts a secret conviction by the Spirit of God, the Gospel itself is a dead letter. Bishop J. Taylor.

Our Saviour himself hath sufficiently declared how necessary it is for us to believe this great mystery,—a Trinity of persons, into whose names we are baptized; the Father, Son and Holy Ghost. This is that mystery of mysteries which is too high for human understandings to conceive, but not too great for a Divine Faith to believe; even that although there be but one God, there are three Persons, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost, every one of which is that one and the self-same God; and therefore it is that Baptism is commanded to be administered in the name of all Three. Bishop Beveridge.

A holy creed, a holy heart and holy life, form an admirable "threefold cord:" they ought never to be separated, as each reflects honor upon the other.

Christ is the great mystery of mercy, and He should be our meditation all the day.

(1) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders" is to be used daily during this week.

(2) The Feast of Saint Matthew is the Superior Day; the First Lessons for which are, A. M., Ecclesiasticus 35; P. M., Ecclesiasticus 38.

It is by this Sacrament [of the Lord's Supper] that the subjects of Christ are distinguished from the subjects of Satan. Have a care, therefore, lest it happen to you as it did to the Egyptians; lest the destroying angel, finding you without the blood of the Lamb, the mark of your high calling, should have power to destroy you. Consider, that this Sacrament is to Christians what the tree of Life was to Adam in Paradise; it was to make him immortal; so that when he deprived himself of that food, he was left to his natural weakness, which ended in death, and misery till death; and whoever deprives himself of this Bread of Life, will be left to himself, to the power of Satan, and to death eternal. Bishop T. Wilson.

They pray in vain to have sin pardoned, which seek not also to prevent sin by prayer,—even every particular sin by prayer against all sin. Hooker.

While you are at your private devotions, where none sees you but God, if you would set yourselves solemnly, as in His presence, and duly consider that He hears every word you speak to Him, and observes every motion you make, both of your soul and body before Him; how grave, how serious, how devout, would you be! how careful to say nothing to Him, but what becomes you to speak, and Him to hear! how impartial would you be in examining yourself! how heavenly in your meditations! how earnest in your petitions! how free from distractions! how cordial and sincere in the whole performance! Bishop Beveridge.

(1) THANKSGIVING DAY, unless some other day be appointed by the Civil Authority. SPECIAL SENTENCES: PSALM instead of Venite: One of the SELECTIONS: LESSONS, Deuteronomy 8; 1 Thessalonians 5, 12-24. SPECIAL THANKSGIVING, after the General Thanksgiving: COLLECT, EPISTLE and GOSPEL.

(2) ADVENT.—The Collect for the first Sunday in Advent is to be repeated daily in Advent after the Collect for the day.

The Bible is made for man, as much as the eternal world of nature; it suits his moral condition; it awakens and gratifies his attention; it comes down to his feelings and wants. The light of the sun is not more adapted to the eye of man, than the Scriptures are adapted to his inward conscience and heart. The manner, too, in which truth is conveyed in the inspired volume is universally suited for man, for childhood, for youth, for manhood, for age. Bp. D. Wilson.

We should not dare to offend God, did we seriously consider, in every act we do, and in every moment we breathe, that we are hastening to our last breath; and that we must give an account of every moment of time, both good and evil, and at what time soever performed. Thus St. Paul saith, he died daily. Bishop Sherlock.

IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

THIS Church traces her descent from the Apostles of our Lord and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST, through the Church of England, to which she has declared herself "indebted, under God, for her first foundation, and a long continuance of nursing care and protection." It consists now of thirty-three consecrated Dioceses, under the care of Bishops, using the same Liturgy, and yielding obedience to the Canons enacted by the General Convention.

This Body, which meets triennially, is composed of the House of Bishops, consisting of all the Diocesan and Missionary Bishops in the United States; and of the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies, consisting of four Clergymen and four Laymen from each Diocese. It legislates for the American Church within the limits of the United States, but can make no alteration in the Constitution, or in the Liturgy and Offices, unless the same has been adopted in one Convention, and submitted to all the Dioceses, and afterwards adopted in another Convention.

* * The Psalms in this Table are the Selections corresponding to the Lessons of the Several Sundays and Holydays of the year, as found in the first Prayer-book of Edward VI., except in the cases where no such Selection exists; and then the appropriate Selections have been taken; these are marked with an asterisk. The Hymns selected are either founded on portions of Holy Scripture occurring in the services of the day, (and these are marked thus, †,) or are considered otherwise suitable. It is hoped the Table may be of some use as an aid to the Clergy and Heads of Families, in their choice of Psalms and Hymns for the services of the Sanctuary and for Family Worship.

POPULATION OF THE GLOBE.

Professor C. F. W. DISTRICH, of the University of Berlin, has furnished the Academy of Sciences, in that City, with the most recent and reliable tables on this subject, giving the following results, with his grounds for them :

|                           |             |
|---------------------------|-------------|
| Population of Europe..... | 272,000,000 |
| “ Asia.....               | 755,000,000 |
| “ America.....            | 200,000,000 |
| “ Africa.....             | 59,000,000  |
| “ Australia, &c.....      | 2,000,000   |

Total..... 1,288,000,000

or more than twelve hundred millions. Reckoning the average deaths as about one in every forty inhabitants, 82,000,000 die in a year; 87,671 in a day; 3,632 in an hour; and 61 in a minute. Thus one human being dies on an average every second, and more than one is born.

The entire population is thus divided in point of religion :

As our knowledge differs from God's, so does our word, which arises from our knowledge, differ from that Word of God, which is born of the Father's essence.—S. BASIL.

(1) ASH-WEDNESDAY. PROPER PSALMS, A. M., 6, 32, 38; P. M., 102, 130, 143.—SPECIAL PRAYERS before the General Thanksgiving.

(2) LENT.—The Collect for Ash-Wednesday is to be said every day, after the Collect for the day.

(3) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders" is to be used daily during this week.

The Devil, who had begun to despair when he saw that Christ fasted forty days, now again began to hope when he saw that He was an hungered; and then the tempter came to Him. If then you shall have fasted and after been tempted, say not, I have lost the fruit of my fast; for though it have not availed to hinder temptation, it will avail to hinder you from being overcome by temptation.—PSEUDO-CHRYSTOSTOM.

He was an hungered, not during the forty days, but after them. Therefore when the Lord hungered, it was not that the effects of abstinence then first came upon Him, but that His humanity was left to its own strength. For the Devil was to be overcome, not by the God, but by the Flesh. By this was figured, that after those forty days which He was to tarry on earth after His passion were accomplished, He should hunger for the salvation of man, at which time He carried back again to God His Father the expected gift, the humanity which He had taken on Him.—S. HILARY.

What then could more fitly represent the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of unity, than the dove? as He saith Himself to His reconciled Church, My dove is one. What could better express humility, than the simplicity and moaning of a dove? Wherefore on this occasion it was that there appeared the very most Holy Trinity, the Father in the voice which said, Thou art My beloved Son; the Holy Spirit in the likeness of the dove. In that Trinity the Apostles were sent to baptize, i. e., in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.—S. AUGUSTINE.

Now in the Father is represented to us the Author of all things, in the Son birth, in the Holy Spirit community of the Father and the Son. What then is common to the Father and the Son, through that they would have us have communion among ourselves and with them; "The love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which He hath given us," and because by our sins we were alienated from the possession of true goods, "Charity shall cover the multitude of sins." And for that Christ forgives sins through the Holy Spirit, hence may be understood how, when He said to His disciples, "Receive ye the Holy Spirit," He subjoined straight, "Whosoever sins ye forgive, they shall be forgiven them."—S. AUGUSTINE.

"Make the tree good, and its fruit good," is a precept of health to which obedience is necessary. But what He says, "Make the tree corrupt, and its fruit corrupt," is not a command to do, but a warning to take heed, spoken against those who being evil thought that they could speak good things, or have good works; this the Lord declares is impossible. The man must be changed first, that his works may be changed; for if the man remains in that wherein he is evil, he cannot have good works; if he remains in that wherein he is good, he cannot have evil works. Christ found us all corrupt trees, but gave power to become sons of God to them that believe on His name.—S. AUGUSTINE.

(1) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders" is to be used daily during this week.

There are two ways of taking our cross; when the body is afflicted by abstinence, or when the heart is pained by compassion for another. Forasmuch as our very virtues are beset with faults, we must declare that vain-glory sometimes attends abstinence of flesh, for the emaciated body and pale countenance betray this high virtue to the praise of the world. Compassion again is sometimes attended by a false affection, which is hereby led to be consenting unto sin; to shut out these, He adds, "and follow me."—S. GREGORY.

(1) The Feast of St. Luke is the Superior Day; the First Morning Lesson for which is, Ecclesiasticus 51. The First Evening Lesson for the 20th Sunday after Trinity is 1 Kings 18.

As no man gives wages to a labourer, to the end he should do nothing save only to eat, so likewise we were not thereto called by Christ, that we should labour such things only as pertain to our own good, but to the glory of God. And like as the hired labourer looks first to his task, and after to his daily food, so ought we to mind first those things which concern the glory of God, then those which concern our own profit. Also as the hired labourer occupies the whole day in his lord's work, and takes but a single hour for his own meal; so ought we to occupy our whole life in the glory of God, taking but a very small portion of it for the uses of this world.—PSEUDO-CHRYSOSTOM.

Forasmuch as it was God the Word who was now born in the flesh, He shewed Himself to be the Word, in that He preserved His mother's virginity. For as our word when it is begot does not destroy the mind, so neither does God the Word in choosing His birth destroy the virginity.—THEODOTUS.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

THIS Church traces her descent from the Apostles of our Lord and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST, through the Church of England, to which she has declared herself "indebted, under God, for her first foundation, and a long continuance of nursing care and protection." It consists now of thirty-three confederated Dioceses, under the care of Bishops, using the same Liturgy, and yielding obedience to the Canons enacted by the General Convention.

The General Convention.

This Body, which meets triennially, is composed of the House of Bishops, consisting of all the Diocesan and Missionary Bishops in the United States; and of the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies, consisting of four Clergymen and four Laymen from each Diocese. It legislates for the American Church within the limits of the United States, but can make no alteration in the Constitution, or in the Liturgy and Offices, unless the same has been adopted in one Convention, and submitted to all the Dioceses, and afterwards adopted in another Convention.

To the Secretaries of Conventions, and of Church Societies and Institutions :

A nearer approach to perfect accuracy would be attained, if the Secretaries of Conventions, and of Church Societies and Institutions generally, as well as all who are interested in the correctness of the Church Almanac, would send to the office of publication, or to the editor, (the Rev. EDWARD M. PROKE,) Journals, Registers, Catalogues, or such other papers, as would give the necessary information for making corrections.

LIFE INSURANCE.

TO CLERGYMEN.

Life Insurance is particularly obligatory upon Clergymen. To those whose salaries admit of it, even if the most rigid economy be necessary, it should be a religious duty to lay aside enough to secure a policy of insurance, by which to provide either for their own wants in advanced years, or for the future wants of their families. For those whose salaries do not admit of it, it should be the duty of every congregation to provide such a policy, or at least to add to their salary a sum enabling them to do it.

The first organized Life Insurance Company originated with a Clergyman in 1700. His object was to benefit the widows of clergymen and others.

“No man with a dependent family is free from reproach if his life is not assured.”—LORD LYNDEHURST.

“A policy of Life Assurance is the cheapest and safest mode of making a certain provision for one’s family.”—BENJ. FRANKLIN.

“All may, by the exertion of a little forethought and a small outlay, protect their families from want, independently of any charitable aid.”—RT. REV. BISHOP POTTER, of Penn.

DESIGN FOR A SMALL WOODEN COUNTRY CHURCH.

The perspective view and plan of a Church presented on the annexed page is designed to meet the wants of a rural parish of limited means. The Church will accommodate from 150 to 175 persons, and the building can be accomplished in most parts of our country for $1,800 to $2,000. It is designed to be built of wood; the frame could be covered with upright boarding battened, while the interior could be plastered.

This plan is well adapted for enlargement to suit the growing wants of a parish. One way to effect this would be to project the front wall 12 feet, which would add 50 sittings; while, by projecting the north wall about 10 feet, an aisle would be formed which would give 50 additional sittings. At the same time, the plan as here shown may be built progressively. i. e., The nave and porch could be built first, arranging a temporary chancel and robing room under the nave roof; this would leave the chancel and robing room to be added with the increase of parishioners and funds, which would be a saving to the first expense of from $200 to $250. If possible, the chancel should be placed to the east.

* The Psalms in this Table are the Selections corresponding to the Introits &c. Several Sundays and Holydays of the year, as found in the first Prayer-Book of Edward VI., except in the cases where no such Selection exists; and then appropriate Selections have been taken; these are marked with an asterisk. The Hymns selected are either founded on portions of Holy Scripture occurring in the services of the day, (and these are marked thus, t,) or are considered otherwise suitable. It is hoped the Table may be of some use as an aid to the Clergy and Holy Families, in their choice of Psalms and Hymns for the services of the Sanctuary, or for Family Worship.

MANUFACTURERS OF # CABINET ORGANS,

One to Twelve Stops; $100 to $600 each.

Warerooms, } New-York, Nos. 5 & 7 Mercer St.
 } Boston, No. 274 Washington Street.

Address MASON BROTHERS, NEW-YORK, or MASON & HAMLIN, BOSTON.

The CABINET ORGAN, recently introduced, has been received by the musical profession with the greatest favor, and is universally recognised as embodying great improvements upon all previous instruments of its class. What the large pipe Organs are to the larger Churches and halls, the Cabinet Organs are to smaller Churches and private residences. They occupy little room, are elegant as pieces of furniture, and are not liable to get out of order.

[From GOTTSCHALK, the eminent Pianist.]

"I congratulate you on the introduction of a new Musical Instrument, long wanted, and sure to find its way into every household of taste and refinement which can possibly afford its moderate expense. Your CABINET ORGAN is truly a charming instrument, worthy of the high praise it has received, and far superior to every thing of its class I have seen. I take pleasure in commending it most heartily, as everywhere worthy a place beside the Piano-Forte, to which it is a fine complement, from its capacity for rendering much delightful music, sacred and secular, classic and popular, to which the Piano is not adapted.

(SIGNED,)

"GOTTSCHALK.

"New-York, Sept. 22, 1868."

[From eminent Organists and Artists.]

"We regard the instruments of MASON & HAMLIN as the BEST of THEIR CLASS of which we have any knowledge, and take pleasure in recommending their CABINET ORGANS especially, as very admirable and desirable for both private and public use."

[Signed by more than one hundred of the most eminent Organists and Artists of our principal cities, including such organists as BERG, of Zion Church, New-York; BRAUN, of St. Paul's Church, Brooklyn; CUTLER, of Trinity Church, New-York; DAVIS, of Dr. Chapin's Church, New-York; LANG, of Old South Church, Boston; MAGRATH, of Dr. Pise's Church, Brooklyn; MILLS, (the Pianist); MORGAN, of Grace Church, New-York; MCGENTHAL, of Calvary Church, New-York; PAINE, of Chauncey-street Church, Boston; SMITZ, of Church of Immaculate Conception, New-York; TUCKERMAN, of St. Paul's Church, Boston; WEIS, of Christ Church, New-York; WILCOX, of Church of Immaculate Conception, Boston; ZERRAHN, of Handel & Haydn Society, Boston; ZUNDL, of Rev. H. W. Beecher's Church, Brooklyn; and many others.]

The style, in plain case, at $170, has ample power for small Churches, Sabbath School rooms, &c.

POPULATION OF THE GLOBE.

Professor C. F. W. DIETRICH, of the University of Berlin, has furnished the Academy of Sciences, in that City, with the most recent and reliable tables on this subject, giving the following results, with his grounds for them :

|                            |                      |
|----------------------------|----------------------|
| Population of Europe,..... | 272,000,000          |

| Total,.....         | 1,288,000,000 |

or more than twelve hundred millions. Reckoning the average deaths as about one in every forty inhabitants, 32,000,000 die in a year; 87,671 in a day; 3,653 in an hour; and 61 in a minute. Thus one human being dies on an average every second, and more than one is born.

The entire population is thus divided in point of religion :

|                              |             |
|------------------------------|-------------|

| Heathens,.....               | 788,000,000 |

Dietrich thus distributes the population of the globe according to racas :

| Ethiopian,.....    | 196,000,000          |                |             |
| Total,..... | 1,288,000,000 |                |             |

Regeneration denotes no more than the commencement of our spiritual life. Its subsequent support, its growth and increase, its renewal when decayed, its recovery when diseased, are provided for by other means. Diligent prayer, meditation on God's word, the observance of His Sabbaths, attendance on his ordinances, and especially on that high and holy office, the communion of the body and blood of Christ in the Lord's Supper, are among the duties enjoined for carrying on the faithful Christian to that entire sanctification which is necessary to give him a joyful assurance that he continues to be vitally and effectually "a member of Christ, a child of God, and an inheritor of the kingdom of Heaven."—BR. VAN MILDERT.

(1) ASH-WEDNESDAY. PROPER PSALMS, A. M., 6, 32, 38; P. M., 102, 130, 143.—SPECIAL PRAYERS before the General Thanksgiving.

(2) LENT.—The Collect for Ash-Wednesday is to be said every day, after the Collect for the day.

(3) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders" is to be used daily during this week.

Declare your repentance by works of repentance; bring forth fruits, and worthy fruits; let your sorrowing for your evils demonstrate itself by departing from the evils you have used. Let your certainty of pardon of your sins through Christ, and your joy in Him, be demonstrated by pursuing the good things which God's Word teaches you. You are now God's workmanship, in Christ Jesus, to do good works, which God has prepared for you to walk in.—BRADFORD.

(1) GOOD FRIDAY.—PROPER PSALMS, A. M., 22, 40, 54; P. M., 64, 88.

(2) EASTER DAY.—ANTHEMS instead of the Venite. PROPER PSALMS, A. M., 2, 57, 111; P. M., 113, 114, 118. PROPER PREFACE in the Communion Office. The NICENE CREED may with great propriety be said, on this and the other high festivals, and on all Holy-days which relate to the Blessed Saviour.

For this is the first resurrection unto life, to rise from sin to repentance, from ignorance to godly knowledge, and from darkness to faith. Through the offence of one man sin came into the world, and through sin, death. Necessary is it, therefore, to die unto sin, and to live unto righteousness; and so to rise together with Christ, seeking the things which are above, and not upon earth. For never shall they come to the second resurrection, which is unto the life everlasting, that will not rise by repentance unto a new life in Him, who is both resurrection and life.—BR. BALD.

(1) ASCENSION DAY.—PROPER PSALMS, A. M., 8, 15, 21; P. M., 24, 47, 103.
PROPER PREFACE in the Communion Office.

Rise up in the name and strength of God, and set thyself in earnest to thy duty; honestly study to know and do the will of God; take heed of defiling thy conscience with any known or wilful sin; call upon God for his grace, by constant and daily prayer; and in this way of well-doing, commit thy soul to the goodness and mercy of God in Christ Jesus; and whilst thou do so, be assured thou art safe, and canst never miscarry.—Br. BULL.

The rock cannot fail us—the anchor will not; all the danger is in the cable or chain of spiritual graces, whereby we are fastened to this rock; if this chain but hold, no tempest, no winds, no floods, can endanger us. And part of our hope respects this chain; for God has promised his willingness and readiness to strengthen it every day more, till our state shall be so changed, that there shall be no such things as tempests known—no tossing of waves, no tumults of winds, no fear of leaking or decay in the vessel; but all calmness and security.

It is the language of our Church, then, as it is the voice of Christ's religion, that we should "lift up our hearts;" that we should not be content with the first movements, however sincere, of penitent devotion; but should seek to rise from penitence to faith, and hope, and love; that we should unceasingly press forward to higher attainments, and deem it little to avoid all outward evil, unless, through God's grace, we be "cleansed in the thoughts of our hearts;" that we should not be satisfied with ourselves while one irregular desire is indulged, one corrupt affection unmortified, one unholy or uncharitable temper unsubdued; in a word, that we should unreservedly give ourselves to God, to be formed and guided as he lists, whose delight is, to "nourish us with all goodness," and to lead us in the "way of peace."—Br. Jma.

(1) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders" is to be used daily during this week.

The joys of religion are the encouragement of youth and the prop of old age. Without them we sicken even in the midst of prosperity, and, with them, adversity loses all its terrors. They sweeten our slumbers; they soothe our waking hours. At home and abroad, in public and in private, they are our constant companions, our richest treasures. The vigor of youth, and the blush of health, are transitory blessings; the pride of rank soon wearies; and riches make themselves wings and fly away; but the joy of a Christian, though it walks upon earth, hides its head in Heaven. It is the gift of God, and God alone is able to deprive him of it.—FABER.

Never let us say of any thing whatsoever that it happeneth by chance; there is nothing that has not been concerted—nothing that hath not its own particular design and end, by which it forms a link in the chain of appointed order. There is no such thing as chance. It is only the blindness of ignorance that talketh of things being strange, and unaccountable, and unlucky.—St. Basil.

God, in His wisdom, ordereth all things so that they may conduce to His glory. No one thing—not even sin itself, however injurious in its nature—is found useless, in the views of His Providence, or without avail, in working to the glory of the Most High God.—St. Chrysostom.

Prosperity is then only a real blessing, when we are truly thankful to God for it; when we take a moderate delight and satisfaction in it; when we soberly make use of the good things God hath given us for ourselves, and out of our plenty supply the poverty of others, according to our proportion and ability; when we walk humbly with our God, and with our neighbor, and honor the Lord with our substance; and, in a word, when we make use of our temporal prosperity as a help and furtherance to our eternal happiness.—

TO CLERGYMEN.

Life Insurance is particularly obligatory upon Clergymen. To those whose salaries admit of it, even if the most rigid economy be necessary, it should be a religious duty to lay aside enough to secure a policy of insurance, by which to provide either for their own wants in advanced years, or for the future wants of their families. For those whose salaries do not admit of it, it should be the duty of every congregation to provide such a policy, or at least to add to their salary a sum enabling them to do it.

The first organized Life Insurance Company originated with a Clergyman, in 1700. His object was to benefit the widows of Clergymen and others.

"No man with a dependent family is free from reproach if his life is not assured."—LORD LYNDBURST.

"A policy of Life Assurance is the cheapest and safest mode of making a certain provision for one's family."—BENJ. FRANKLIN.

"All may, by the exertion of a little forethought and a small outlay, protect their families from want, independently of any charitable aid."—RT. REV. BISHOP POTTER, of Penn.

* * The Psalms in this Table are the Selections corresponding to the Introits for the Several Sundays and Holydays of the year, as found in the first Prayer-Book of Edward VI., except in the cases where no such Selection exists; and then other appropriate Selections have been taken; these are marked with an asterisk. The Hymns selected are either founded on portions of Holy Scripture occurring in the services of the day, (and these are marked thus, †,) or are considered otherwise suitable. It is hoped the Table may be of some use as an aid to the Clergy and Heads of Families, in their choice of Psalms and Hymns for the services of the Sanctuary, and for Family Worship.

Prefatory Note.

The Church Almanac is published annually, under the direction of a Committee of the Protestant Episcopal Tract Society, and is designed to furnish, besides the usual astronomical and other notices, full information in regard to the Institutions of the Church and the several Dioceses.

The Secretaries of Conventions, and of Church Societies and Institutions generally, as well as all who are interested in its correctness, are requested to co-operate with the undersigned in securing the greatest possible accuracy in the statistical and other information. To those who kindly sent Journals, Registers, Catalogues, corrected Diocesan Clergy Lists, or other matter, for use in preparing the present Almanac, acknowledgments are hereby made.

The Rev. Clergy, who change their parochial relations or P. O. Address, at the Convention of the Diocese to which they belong has been held, should not fail to send notice thereof to the Editor, on or before October 15th, in each year. When this is not done, he is not to be held responsible for inaccuracies in the Clergy and Parish Lists.

CATECHISING.—Resolved, That the following be entered on the Journal of the House, and be communicated to the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies:

The House of Bishops, impressed with the importance of informing the youth and others in the doctrines, Constitution and Liturgy of the Church, deem it their duty to call the attention of the Clergy to the 22d Canon, which enjoins on them diligence in catechetical instruction by lectures. The Bishops consider these among the most important duties of clergymen, and among the most effectual means of promoting religious knowledge and practical piety.—House of Bishops, May 24, 1817.

The NICHENE CREED may with great propriety be said on this and the other high festivals, and on all Holy-days which relate to the Blessed Saviour.

The House of Clerical and Lay Deputies respectfully inform the House of Bishops, that they have passed the following resolution, and ask the concurrence of the House of Bishops in the same:

Resolved, That in view of the rapid increase in the population of the United States, and also in order to carry out fully her parochial organization, it is the opinion of this Convention, that the Church should call the attention of her members to the duty of providing more ample free sittings.

On motion, Resolved, That this House concur in the resolution.—House of Bishops, Oct. 10, 1841. Journal, p. 114.

(1) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders" is to be used daily during this week.

LAWLESSNESS.—It is the source of discord in the Church; it is the promoter of sin in the world without. If the members of the Christian Church, and most especially the Ministers of the Christian Church, shall esteem it a mark of Evangelical independence rather than a sure token of satanic influence, to exercise their individual self-will in matters ruled by the Canon Law of the Church of Christ:—if in Doctrine, Discipline, or Worship, the law of the Church is decided or defied, and the binding obligation of Canonical oaths jeopardized; the sanctity of oaths in all departments of life—in the family—in the State—between man and man—in social life and in business transactions, and between corporations, will be depreciated, and iniquity will abound to the destruction of the peace of individuals and the welfare of the community.—BISHOP ODENHEIMER.

AMUSEMENTS.—Resolved, That the following be entered on the Journal of this House, and be sent to the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies, to be read therein :

The House of Bishops, solicitous for the preservation of the purity of the Church, and the piety of its members, are induced to impress upon the Clergy the important duty, with a discreet but earnest zeal, of warning the people of their respective cures, of the danger of an indulgence in those worldly pleasures, which may tend to withdraw the affections from spiritual things. And especially on the subject of gaming, of amusements involving cruelty to the brute creation, and of theatrical representation, to which some peculiar circumstances have called their attention. They do not hesitate to express their unanimous opinion that these amusements, as well from their licentious tendency as from the strong temptations to vice which they afford, ought not to be frequented. And the Bishops cannot refrain from expressing their deep regret at the information that, in some of our large cities, so little respect is paid to the feelings of the members of the Church, that theatrical representations are fixed for the evenings of her most solemn festivals.—House of Bishops, May 27, 1817.

OFFICIATING MINISTERS.—The House refused to concur in the Canon—of the officiating of persons not regularly ordained, and repealing the thirty-fifth Canon—proposed by the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies, and notice thereof was given to that House, with the following statement of their reasons for non-concurrence:

The Bishops have found, by experience, that such ministers, in many instances, preaching in our churches and to our congregations, avail themselves of such opportunities to inveigh against the principles of our communion; and, in some instances, have endeavored to obtain a common right with us in property. It is therefore not from the want of charity to worthy persons differing from us, but from the maintaining of such charity, and to avoid collision, that we declare our non-concurrence.

The Bishops further declare their opinion concerning the thirty-fifth Canon as it now stands, that it does not prohibit the officiating of pious and respectable persons, as Lay Teachers in our churches, in cases of necessity or of expediency, nor the lending of any Church to any respectable congregation, on any occasion of emergency.—House of Bishops, May 24, 1820.

(1) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers “For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders” is to be used daily during this week.

STABILITY OF THE CHURCH.—In regard to the future stability of our Branch of the Church—in all her great features—her doctrines, ministry, worship and discipline—we have the unspeakable comfort of resting in quiet in the fullest assurance. The ephemeral excitements of to-day are forgotten to-morrow. The short-lived and feeble individuals who fancy that they are inaugurating great changes, if not great revolutions, quickly pass away, and the City of God is seen standing unharmed; every wall and bulwark and tower unmitigated; only rising and expanding, and extending herself with a strange miraculous growth; peopled with myriads of busy hearts and hands; animated with the working of lofty spirits; vocal with praise; bright with a Divine peace and joy; and becoming, beyond all human anticipation, a mighty power in the earth. For the Church we have no fear. She is safe under the care of her Lord, and in the strength of her great principles.—BISHOP H. POTTER.

CHURCH FAIRS.—As a principle, I do not believe in them in any way. They are intended to extort from the public money for Church purposes, which would not be given from proper religious motives. Every social blandishment is held out to fascinate the purchaser, and induce him, often against his judgment, to contribute. Thus the very foundation of Christian charity is undermined. That is based upon self-denial—giving for Christ's sake what subjects us to self-sacrifice. But these practices hold out inducements to men to give, until, at last, they will not contribute even to a holy cause, unless they receive some compensation. Thus the community becomes demoralized on a most vital principle of Christian life. The members of Christ's Church forget, that in offering to the Lord of their substance, they are confessing that all they have they hold as stewards. They forget that their contributions to God's cause are as much a part of their worship as their prayers to Him.

And far more objectionable are these scenes when the festival degenerates into a ball, or when the laws of the State are openly violated, and raffles and lotteries are pressed upon the visitors. * * * The whole of this system, brethren, is sinful, and has been practised to an extent which has brought disgrace upon the cause of religion.—BISHOP KIP.

The Protestant Episcopal Church

IN THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

THIS Church traces her descent from the Apostles of our Lord and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST, through the Church of England, to which she has declared herself "indebted, under God, for her first foundation, and a long continuance of nursing care and protection." It consists now of thirty-nine confederated Dioceses, under the care of Bishops, using the same Liturgy, and yielding obedience to the Canons enacted by the General Convention.

The General Convention.

THIS Body, which meets triennially, is composed of the House of Bishops, consisting of all the Diocesan and Missionary Bishops in the American Church; and of the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies, consisting of four Clergymen and four Laymen from each Diocese. It legislates for the American Church within the limits of the United States, but can make no alteration in the Constitution, or in the Liturgy and Offices, unless the same has been adopted in one Convention, and submitted to all the Dioceses, and afterwards adopted in another Convention.

The Protestant Episcopal Church

IN THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

---

THE GREAT AMERICAN TEA COMPANY

Receive their Teas by the Cargo from the best Districts of China and Japan, and sell them in lots to suit at
CARGO PRICES.

The Proprietors of the GREAT AMERICAN TEA COMPANY became fully convinced, several years ago, that consumers of Tea and Coffee were paying too many and too large profits on these articles of every day consumption, and therefore organized the GREAT AMERICAN TEA COMPANY, to do away, as far as possible, with these enormous drains upon the customers, and to supply them with these necessities at the smallest possible price.

To give our readers an idea of the profits which have been made in the Tea trade, we will start with the American houses, leaving out of the account entirely the profits of the Chinese factors. First—The American house in China or Japan makes large profits on its sales or shipments—and some of the richest retired merchants in this country have made their immense fortunes through their houses in China. Second—The Banker makes large profits upon the foreign exchange used in the purchase of tea. Third—The Importer makes a profit of 80 to 50 per cent. in many cases. Fourth—On its arrival here it is sold by the cargo, and the purchaser sells it to the Speculator in invoices of 1,000 to 2,000 packages, at an average profit of about 10 per cent. Fifth—The Speculator sells it to the Wholesale Tea Dealer in lines, at a profit of 10 to 15 per cent. Sixth—The Wholesale Tea Dealer sells it to the Wholesale Grocer in lots to suit his trade, at a profit of about 10 per cent. Seventh—The Wholesale Grocer sells it to the Retail Dealer, at a profit of 15 to 25 per cent. Eighth—The Retailer sells it to the Consumer, for ALL THE PROFIT HE CAN GET. When you have added to these EIGHT profits as many brokerages, cartages, storages, cooperages and waste, and add the original cost of the Tea, it will be perceived what the consumer has to pay. And now we propose to show why we can sell so very much lower than other dealers. We propose to do away with all these various profits and brokerages, cartages, storages, cooperages and waste, with the exception of a small commission paid for purchasing to our correspondents in China and Japan, one cartage, and a small profit to ourselves—which, on our large sales, will amply pay us. Through our system of supplying Clubs throughout the country, consumers in all parts of the United States can receive their teas at the same price (with the small additional expense of transportation) as though they bought them at our warehouses in this city. Parties getting their teas from us may confidently rely upon getting them pure and fresh, as they come direct from the Custom-House stores to our warehouses. We warrant all the goods we sell to give entire satisfaction. If they are not satisfactory, they can be returned at our expense within thirty days, and have the money refunded.

The Company have selected the following kinds from their stock, which they recommend to meet the wants of Clubs. They are sold at Cargo Prices, the same as the Company sells them at New-York, as the list of prices will show.

Illustrated with Five Hundred Maps and Engravings.

Edited by REV. SAMUEL W. BARNUM.

The "Comprehensive Dictionary," on which nearly three years of editorial labor have been expended, owes its origin to a settled conviction, on the part of the Editor and Publishers, of the need of such a modified abridgment of Dr. Smith's original work as should make the results of modern scholarship generally accessible, and, it is believed, presents the results in a more complete, intelligible and reliable form than either of the several other abridgments of Smith's Dictionary, or than any other Dictionary of the Bible in our language. It is designed to be, in all respects, a Standard Dictionary for the People.

- I. It is a complete pronouncing and defining Dictionary, all words being divided into the syllables, and the etymologies and significations carefully given.
- II. Numerous important additions from the best American, English and German authorities are introduced in every part of the work, and the whole is made intelligible to the readers of the English Bible.
- III. It has a more comprehensive range of topics than can be found in any other Abridgment or even in the original work.
- IV. It contains over two hundred pages more than any other Abridgment, and, by judicious condensation and omission of unimportant matter, affords at least 25 per cent. more of valuable information.
- V. It contains over two hundred more maps and illustrations than any other Abridgment. In maps and illustrations it is superior to Dr. Smith's larger work, as well as to all other Abridgments.

"The well established reputation of the author, and my high confidence in his musical ability, warrant me in accepting it as a valuable guide."

FROM THE BISHOP OF MAINE:

"No collection of Music was ever less chargeable with deficiency in any respect. It supplies every imaginable want of choir or congregation, and the quality of its music is infinitely superior to that of those books which are annually poured forth in the market."

"This ample work should not be confounded with certain imitations of its title, which, since its announcement, have sprung up. In real excellence, it surpasses our highest expectations. We should not be surprised if it went wherever the Prayer-Book goes."—The Churchman.

"The established reputation and high musical attainments of Dr. Staunton, entitle the book to a much larger share of confidence than belongs to most books of this class."—Church Journal.

"The work is modelled in conformity with the Prayer-Book. Those desirous of a new book will do well to examine it."—Southern Churchman.

"Not one jot too much is claimed for this work; it is the fullest and best collection of real Church Music accessible to the people of this country; the testimony of those who use it is that it grows on them; that they appreciate it more and more richly, week by week."—Gospel Messenger.

"We must acknowledge that the author has caught the musical sentiment of the Church at large."—Protestant Churchman.

ECCLESIASTICAL LAW

IN THE STATE OF NEW-YORK.

By Hon. MURRAY HOFFMAN. Svo. $3 50.

"Such a book, from such a source, will be most acceptable to the Church at large. And the work contains expositions of Ecclesiastical Law as applicable to all the different bodies of Christians within the State, its usefulness will be confined to no one denomination. It would not become me to eulogize a legal work of Judge Hoffman. His name will be its authority. I have not been able, since the sheets came to me, to go through the entire volume, but I have examined two or three chapters with some care, and I have no hesitation in expressing to you the opinion, that not only the Clergy and leading laymen of our Church, but the intelligent members of other religious bodies, will find it a work worthy of being placed in their libraries for careful perusal and frequent reference."—Horatio Potter, Bishop of New-York.

"This is a book which has grown out of the practical want of a treatise on the law of the State, as it affects religious societies. It is specially adapted to the State of New-York, though the provisions of the law in other States are so similar to those of New-York, that it will be useful also in them. Neither is it confined to our own Church, the chief religious societies having each a chapter devoted to them. A large portion of the book is historical, and in the remainder will be found a discussion of the law as to incorporations, chapels, free churches, burying-grounds, pews, the dismissal of ministers, and other subjects, as to which not only every clergyman, but every layman who attempts to take part in the management of a parish should be informed. Judge Hoffman is certainly better qualified than any other member of the bar to speak with authority on these subjects, and he seems to have performed his work thoroughly and well."—Church Record.

"This work will be of great service to the Church and to lawyers generally, as the relations of civil and ecclesiastical jurisprudence in this country are somewhat confused. Mr. Hoffman here sets forth the statutes, decisions of courts, and ecclesiastical regulations that bear on the application of law. He gives, too, historical notices of all the churches and religious societies that existed in our Province before the Revolution."—Gospel Messenger.

A HISTORY OF THE BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER, with a Rationale of its Offices. By FRANCIS PROCTER, M. A.; with an Introductory Chapter on the History of the American Liturgy. By WILLIAM STEVENS PERRY, M. A. 8vo., Cloth, $4 50.

Mr. Procter's treatise on the Prayer-Book needs no commendation at our hands. It was an immense advance on any thing which had preceded it, and it maintains its place, as it deserves, beside all that has been written since. Specially designed for scholars, it yet has interest and use for all; while its references are not show references, but really aids to careful study. The present is the seventh edition, and that such a work should have passed through so many editions in these days, is a proof of its sterling value. The one point in which, before this present edition, the work was lacking for us, was its very meagre notice of our own American Book. This defect is now fully and carefully supplied by the Introductory Chapter or Preface of the Rev. Mr. Perry. No man among us is better qualified to write such a chapter, and the work has been done concisely and yet thoroughly. The volume is now all we would desire. The publishers deserve the thanks of the Church for this reprint of a book which should be in the library of every Clergyman and Divinity Student, and which we hope many of the laity also will be led to read. The knowledge it conveys will be a sure safeguard against many crude speculations and plans of change in our Service which are now afloat.—The Churchman.

WHAT ARE THE EFFECTS OF TARRANT'S
Effervescent Seltzer Aperient ?

This is a question which the public has a right to ask, and it has also a right to expect a candid, straightforward and satisfactory reply. The answer shall be given fairly and squarely, from the personal testimony of thousands who have used the preparation during the last thirty years. These competent witnesses declare over their own signatures, that the preparation will

PROMPTLY RELIEVE INDIGESTION,
REGULATE THE FLOW OF THE BILE,
CURE EVERY SPECIES OF HEADACHE,
TRANQUILIZE THE NERVOUS SYSTEM,
REFRESH AND INVIGORATE THE WEAK,
PROMOTE HEALTHFUL PERSPIRATION,
MITIGATE THE PAINS OF RHEUMATISM,
NEUTRALIZE ACID IN THE STOMACH,
CLEANSE AND TONE THE BOWELS,
CHEER THE DEPRESSED SPIRITS,
ASSIST THE FAILING APPETITE.

Those who have tested the preparation in their own case, or in cases of their friends, are of course the best judges of its merits; and the above summary is simply a condensation of a portion of their testimony, covering a period of about twenty-three years.

The object of this School is to give a sound and liberal education, upon the model of the great English Public Schools, with such modifications as are needed by the circumstances of the country. It is a Church School, and therefore all boys are taught the Bible and the Church Catechism, and trained in the principles of the Church. In the College Chapel, every Sunday afternoon, special sermons are addressed to the boys.

Physical training is attended to by systematic instruction in drill, and by the promotion of Cricket, Swimming, Boating, and other manly exercises.

The School buildings are beautifully situated near the junction of the Massawippi and St. Francis Rivers, and stand in grounds of several hundred acres extent, which afford healthful recreation to the boys; there is also a Cricket ground of about seven acres.

Boys are received as boarders at the School Boarding-house, also by the Rector, the Rev. W. H. Prideaux, and in some other licensed houses.

The academical year is divided into two terms as regards residence: September 1st,—December 21st, and January 21st,—June 28th, the day varying slightly with the year.

The Annual Examination of the School takes place at Easter, and prizes are awarded both for the Examination and for the work of the term.

The School fees for boys boarding in the School-house amount to $235 gold. Testimonials are required from every boy admitted from other schools.

For prospectus, &c., apply to the Reverend the Rector, Bishop's College. Information may also be obtained at Pott & Amery, 5 Cooper Union, and at 762 Broadway, N. Y.

Premium System.

THE WASHINGTON has always advocated and practised the CASH SYSTEM, believing it to be for the interest of the insured.

Dividend System.

The surplus of THE WASHINGTON is distributed annually, on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN, and may be applied as CASH IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUM, or to the purchase of additional insurance, or of a permanent reduction of the Premium during the continuance of the Policy.

Contribution Plan.

The Dividends of a Life Insurance Company are merely a return to Policy-holders of their respective over-payments of Premium. The "Contribution Plan" is so called, from its showing the contribution of each member toward the surplus of the Company by his over-payment of Premium. This plan has been adopted by THE WASHINGTON, as it is deemed by the best actuaries in this country and in Europe to be the MOST EQUITABLE EVER DEVISED. All other plans hitherto in use have practically benefited one class of Policy-holders at the expense of another.

Success.

That THE WASHINGTON is a great Public Favorite, will be seen from the fact that the business of the past year shows a greater increase over that of the preceding year than that of any other Cash Company; while the business of the best Note Companies actually fell off during 1867.

OUR NEW Family Sewing Machine.

The superior merits of the "SINGER" machines over all others, for either family use or manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellence is no longer considered necessary.

OUR NEW FAMILY MACHINE, which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the Best Sewing Machine in existence.

THE MACHINE IN QUESTION IS Simple, Compact, Durable and Beautiful.

It is quiet, light running, and capable of performing a range and variety of work never before attempted upon a single machine—using either Silk, Twist, Linen or Cotton Thread, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Felling, Trimming, Binding, &c., are novel and practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this machine.

New designs of the Unique, Useful and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the machines manufactured by this Company, have been prepared for enclosing the new machine.

A faint idea, however, can at best be conveyed through the medium of a (necessarily) limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branches or agencies for supplying the "Singer" machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished. Or communications may be addressed to

EXCELSIOR!!!

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENTS.

THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO.

MANUFACTURERS OF THE CELEBRATED

MASON & HAMLIN CABINET ORGANS, METROPOLITAN ORGANS, AND PORTABLE ORGANS,

Have the pleasure of announcing the invention as one of the most important improvements ever made in instruments of this class, which will be introduced and exclusively used in organs of their make. This is the

Mason & Hamlin Improved Vox Humana, or Fan Tremulant, (Patented July, 1868.)

Excelling every other attachment of this class in the beauty of its effect, the ease with which it is used, durability, and freedom from liability to get out of order.

1. In connection with the Automatic Swell, (used only in the Mason & Hamlin Organs,) it produces the nearest approach to the peculiarly sympathetic, rich and attractive quality of a cultivated human voice yet attained in any reed instrument.

2. It is operated by the bellows of the instrument, and requires no separate pedal, being played by the same motion, and just as easy as an instrument without it.

3. It has no clock-work, and may be said to be entirely free from liability to get out of order, and as durable as the instrument itself.

Other of the more important improvements exclusively used by this Company are

IMPROVED COMBINATION CENTRE PRESSURE REED VALVES

And Graduated Scale. (Patented 1866.)

These valves are of the greatest importance in respect to quality of tone, quickness of utterance, and freedom from liability to get out of order.

THE AUTOMATIC BELLOWS SWELL,

(Patented.)

Has become so celebrated that it scarcely needs remark. It is the most perfect swell in existence, rendering the instrument capable of an endless variety of exquisite effects not attainable without it. In connection with the Improved Vox Humana, the Automatic Bellows Swell is peculiarly valuable. It may be said that these improvements are essential to each other; neither is perfect without the other; and together they are capable of many charming effects, which would be impossible from either alone.

The last two of these improvements have been employed in the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs for some time, and have materially aided in obtaining for them the reputation they enjoy as the best instruments of the class in the world. The first is now introduced for the first time. All of them are patented, and can be used only by the Mason & Hamlin Organ Company.

A First Prize Medal was awarded the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs at the Paris Exposition in competition with the best makers from all countries. More than sixty styles of Organs are made by them, varying in price from $75 to $600 each and upward. ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUES, with descriptions, illustrations, and prices of the different instruments, free to any address.

WHEELER & WILSON,

No. 625 Broadway, N. Y.

AWARDED, OVER EIGHTY-TWO COMPETITORS,
THE HIGHEST PREMIUM, FOR PERFECTION OF
SEWING and BUTTON-HOLE MACHINES,
The only GOLD MEDAL for this branch of Manufacture.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, WASHINGTON, 9th May, 1868.

To WHEELER & WILSON, of New-York:

SIRs,—The Department has received a Gold Medal, awarded to your firm on Sewing and Button-Hole Machines, at the Paris Universal Exposition of 1867.

Your obedient servant,

WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

This GOLD MEDAL is now on view in the show window of WHEELER & WILSON.

The only Gold Medal for the manufacture and perfection of Sewing Machines and Button-Hole Machines, was awarded to Messrs. Wheeler & Wilson, of New-York.

Henry E. Q. D'Aligny,

Member and Reporter of the International Jury.

Messrs. Wheeler & Wilson, 625 Broadway, N. Y., received the GOLD MEDAL, and the only one awarded for the most perfect Sewing Machine and Button-hole Machine exhibited at the Paris Universal Exposition.

J. C. DERBY,

U. S. General Agent for the Exposition.

See Wheeler & Wilson's Button-hole Attachment, making one hundred button holes an hour—the desideratum for Families, Dressmakers and Manufacturers.

In reference to the Highest Premium—the Gold Medal recently awarded to WHEELER & WILSON at the Paris Exposition—The Independent well says:—"That modern wonder, the Atlantic Cable, seldom flashes messages between the two hemispheres fraught with more pleasing as well as more important intelligence than was the announcement that a magnificent tribute of merit had been awarded to one of the most enterprising firms—the WHEELER & WILSON Manufacturing Company. This is the only Gold Medal awarded for Sewing Machines and Button-hole Machines. There were eighty-two competitors. That which has long been claimed by the WHEELER & WILSON Company, and which those who are acquainted with the superior quality of the Sewing Machines have never hesitated to acknowledge as a rightful claim, must now be universally conceded—namely, that the WHEELER & WILSON Machines are par excellence the most desirable. To the perfecter of these machines the award is in truth well deserved."—Express.

Why the Wheeler & Wilson Machine is Preferred.

It makes the "LOCK-STITCH;" its seams will not ravel; it is alike on both sides; it saves thread and silk; it is easily threaded; the tension of threads gives no trouble; its work is not soiled by oil; its parts are easily reached; it runs very light; its attachments are readily applied; it stitches all kinds of material; it hems any width; it fells; it puts on Bindings; it lays in Cord; it embroiders; it makes tucks; it gathers; it stitches button-holes; it is exceedingly simple; it works upon the rotary principle; it economizes power; it wears but slightly; it will last for years; it is warranted; 850,000 of them have been made; No. 1 works well after fifteen years' constant use; 50,000 of them are sold annually; its sale increases daily.

* * The Psalms in this Table are the selections corresponding to the Introits for the several Sundays and Holydays of the year, as found in the first Prayer-Book of Edward VI., except in the cases where no such Selection exists; and then other appropriate Selections have been taken; these are marked with an asterisk. The Hymns selected are either founded on portions of Holy Scripture occurring in the services of the day, (and these are marked thus, †,) or are considered otherwise suitable. It is hoped the Table may be of some use as an aid to the Clergy and Heads of Families, in their choice of Psalms and Hymns for the services of the Sanctuary, and for Family Worship.

BWARE OF ATTEMPTS TO DECEIVE OR MISLEAD.—The City of Troy having been celebrated for its Bells, has lead some manufacturers at other places to claim that they made their own. NEW YORK:

The Protestant Episcopal Tract Society,

COOPER UNION, FOURTH AVE., NEAR 8TH ST.

Entered, according to Act of Congress, in the year 1871, by

JAMES POTT,

In the Office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington.

ADVERTISEMENT.

he Church Almanac is published annually by the Protestant Episcopal Tract Society, and is designed to furnish, besides the usual astronomical and other notices, full information in regard to the institutions of the Church and the several Dioceses.

The Secretaries of the Colleges, Seminaries, incorporated Schools, Church Societies and Institutions noticed in the Almanac should send the corrections necessary to be made in the list of officers, etc., on or before October 1.

The Secretaries of the several Diocesan Conventions are respectfully requested to forward a copy of their respective Journals for use in the preparation of the Almanac.

The Rev. Clergy, whose Names, Titles, Parishes, or P. O. Addresses are not correctly or fully given in some one of the Convention Journals published by Oct. 1 in each year, should not fail, on or before that date, to send notice to the Editor of the changes to be made in the new Almanac. When this is not done, he is not to be held responsible for inaccuracies in the Clergy and Parish Lists.

Notices of "Clerical Changes," for use in the preparation of the Parish List, (which will be published annually December 20, bound up with the Almanac,) may be sent as late as December 1. The Parish List contains the number of Communicants in each Parish so far as reported in the Convention Journals, and will be found of interest and service as indicating the relative size and strength of the Parishes in a Diocese.

The Editor will be thankful to have his attention called to any names which are improperly retained on the List of the Clergy, as, e.g., the names of clergymen deceased or deposed.

A Table of the SUNDAYS AND HOLY DAYS FOR 1872 will be found on page 6.

The usual tables of Church Statistics, and the General Statistical Summary, will be found at the end of the Almanac, after the List of Clergy.

Only INCORPORATED schools can be inserted under "Diocesan Institutions."

All communications for the Almanac, except Orders and Advertisements, should be sent direct to the Editor.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1, 1871.

UNITED STATES CONGRESS.—The Forty-second Congress commenced its first regular session March 4, 1871. The members of each House receive a salary of $5,000 per annum, and mileage at 20 cents a mile. For each day's absence, except for sickness, $8 is deducted. The Speaker of the House of Representatives receives double the salary of a member.

The SENATE is composed, when the States are all represented, of 74 members, two being elected by the Legislature of each State, for a term of six years. The Vice-President of the United States is President of the Senate. In his absence, a President pro tempore is chosen by the Senate.

The HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES consists, when full, of 300 members, apportioned to the several States according to their population; a new election occurring every second year. In addition to these, a delegate is admitted from each organized territory, with the right to debate questions that concern it, but not to vote.

(1) The same Collect, Epistle and Gospel shall serve for every day after, unto the Epiphany.

UNIFORMITY.—It is the duty of all loving members of the Church to submit their own private opinion, in matters indifferent, to the judgment of their brethren, for truth of doctrine and fervency of devotion are best promoted when Christian men are seen to be of one heart and one soul. There need be no servile uniformity, if there be but a recognized authority which all are willing to obey. The scouts of an army may push on in the front, but they must obey the signal of recall when they advance too far. The whole of our Church is interested in obtaining this happy combination of elastic freedom with efficient control: the buoyant motion of the high metted horse under the light yet firm hand of the skillful rider.—THE BISHOP OF LICHFIELD.

(1) Ash-Wednesday.—Proper Psalms, A.M., 6, 32, 38; P.M., 102, 130, 143.—Special Prayer before the General Thanksgiving.

(2) LENT.—The Collect for ASH-WEDNESDAY is to be read every day after the Collect for the day.

(3) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders" is to be used daily during this week.

CHURCH SEASONS.—It is a source of grief, that the means of grace in our Apostolic Church, are by many of our people so much overlooked, even our hallowed Lenten Season, designed for the reviving of our Christian zeal and hope, and other Church seasons being, not by all, nor by a majority perhaps, but by many so imperfectly improved, while so many are hurried on with the world in the mad rush of folly and sin.—BISHOP VAIL. Convention Address, 1871.

WORK FOR CHRISTIAN WOMEN.—Clearly, in my judgment, the time has come when every Parish should have its Female Diaconate, and every Diocese should have its Sisterhoods and Orders of Women, some devoted, as a life duty, to works of mercy in the homes of the poor and in orphan homes and hospitals; some to the work of teaching in Church Schools, and some to the work of Missions in our cities.—Bp. Littlejohn, Conv. Add. 1871.

(2) LENT.—The Collect for ASH-WEDNESDAY is to be read every day after the Collect for the day.

(3) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders" is to be used daily during this week.

CHURCH SEASONS.—It is a source of grief, that the means of grace in our Apostolic Church, are by many of our people so much overlooked, even our hallowed Lenten Season, designed for the reviving of our Christian zeal and hope, and other Church seasons being, not by all, nor by a majority perhaps, but by many so imperfectly improved, while so many are hurried on with the world in the mad rush of folly and sin.—BISHOP VAIL. Convention Address, 1871.

WORK FOR CHRISTIAN WOMEN.—Clearly, in my judgment, the time has come when every Parish should have its Female Diaconate, and every Diocese should have its Sisterhoods and Orders of Women, some devoted, as a life duty, to works of mercy in the homes of the poor and in orphan homes and hospitals; some to the work of teaching in Church Schools, and some to the work of Missions in our cities.—Bp. Littlejohn, Conv. Add. 1871.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL was never intended to be a substitute for the pastoral instruction of the young; but to be an auxiliary to it, to bring under the Rector's influence many who would otherwise know little of the blessing of Christian training. As an adjunct of the Rector's work, the Sunday School should be always under his direction. The Church confides the work of religious instruction, solely to the Clergy. They alone are made responsible for it, and their authority must be co-extensive with their responsibility.

PUBLIC CATECHISING.—The presence of a full congregation would give character and dignity to this instruction, and make it far more impressive and profitable to the children. They are strongly influenced by example. If their fathers and mothers and elder friends show their indifference to the catechising by staying away from it, how can it be expected that they will go to it otherwise than unwillingly? Let all who desire the improvement of the young be careful to be present on the occasions of public catechising.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION.—A penetrating thinker on the continent of Europe inquired, some years ago, what all the popular plans of Education would be worth to a nation, if they only instructed its rogues how to pick its locks and outwit its police. Sooner or later the people will wake up to the plain old fact that knowledge needs faith to make it strong, or safe, or happy; that man is a living soul as well as a calculating machine; that science is not salvation; and that the glory of learning is to render men not merely knowing, but wise.—BISHOP HUNTINGTON. Convention Address, 1870.

SECULAR EDUCATION.—Such an Education is good and necessary in its place, as an essential PART in a great whole. But it is not the whole. It supplies the main instrumentalities through which the powers of man, as an intellectual being, are to be developed, invigorated and trained. But those instrumentalities do not reach man's loftiest attributes. Geography, and Algebra, and Logic, and Physical Science, and Metaphysics, do absolutely nothing to form the soul to the love of good, or to the abhorrence of evil; do absolutely nothing to purify the affections, to educate the conscience, to enthrone the fear and love of God in the heart,—nothing to train and exercise the will to wield a supreme moral control over the passions.—BISHOP POTTER. Convention Address, 1870.

WORK FOR ALL.—The people must be taught to work. The children, the youth, the adults can all be trained to do something for God's glory and the salvation of men. Organizations should be simple and avoid the friction of machinery. Some persons may be fitted for lay readers; some, to be Bible readers; some, catechists; some, district visitors; some, to care for the sick and needy. Brotherhoods and Sisterhoods are practicable in any parish, if there are two or three whose hearts burn with love. . . . . There is no work which is little if it be done for CHRIST.—BISHOP WHIPPLE.

(1) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers, "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders," is to be used daily during this week.

COMING LATE TO CHURCH.—It is a matter of very great importance that the members of the Congregation should be in their accustomed seats in church some moments before the time appointed for Public Worship. This is entirely practicable for the great majority of those who frequent the House of God. If any material interest were to be subserved by their punctual attendance, there would not, I fear, be the same use of complaint that, unhappily, now exists. Let the Clergy, frequently and earnestly, impress upon their people the importance of punctuality, and enforce the precept by their own carefulness to commence the services at the appointed time.—BISHOP R. H. WILMER, Convention Address, 1871.

WORK FOR ALL.—The people must be taught to work. The children, the youth, the adults can all be trained to do something for God's glory and the salvation of men. Organizations should be simple and avoid the friction of machinery. Some persons may be fitted for lay readers; some, to be Bible readers; some, catechists; some, district visitors; some, to care for the sick and needy. Brotherhoods and Sisterhoods are practicable in any parish, if there are two or three whose hearts burn with love. . . . . There is no work which is little if it be done for CHRIST.—BISHOP WHIPPLE.
Convention Address, 1871.

(1) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers, "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders," is to be used daily during this week.

COMING LATE TO CHURCH.—It is a matter of very great importance that the members of the Congregation should be in their accustomed seats in church some moments before the time appointed for Public Worship. This is entirely practicable for the great majority of those who frequent the House of God. If any material interest were to be subserved by their punctual attendance, there would not, I fear, be the same cause of complaint that, unhappily, now exists. Let the Clergy, frequently and earnestly, impress upon their people the importance of punctuality, and enforce the precept by their own carefulness to commence the services at the appointed time.—BISHOP R. H. WILMER, Convention Address, 1871.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION.—We live in an age which is practically infidel; an age of free thought—free in the broadest sense; and a so-called liberal religion—that is, a religion which ignores, nay, worse, positively denies a definite faith, historic Christianity, the authority of the priesthood and a Divinely constituted Church—seeks to control the land. Our only hope of stemming this fearful tide is in the religious training of the young, in the effort to make “Christian Education the privilege of every community, and the ruling influence of every household” in all our borders.—BENNER TALBOT.

THE ANGLICAN COMMUNION.—The hope of the world, as the refuge and rallying point for unity, and the adaptive to the unrest, cravings and experiments of our social state, is the ANGLICAN COMMUNION, with its ancestral fidelity to the Divine Faith and appointments; its comprehensive liberty in opinion; its Catholicity in spirit and practice; its protest against the arrogance of the Papacy and the insidious wrongs of Romanism, and its wise and gentle yearnings for the restoration of unity.—BISHOP WHITEHOUSE. Convention Address, 1870.

TO THE CLERGY.

A number of the Convention Journals are not published when the Almanac goes to press. Some of the Journals give the Parish, but not the P. O. Address of the Clergy. The only sure way, therefore, of having one's Name and Address correctly given in the above Clergy List is to send notice to the Editor of the proper changes to be made. It is not sufficient to send such notice to Church papers, because the Editor of the Almanac has no means of determining whether the publication of the same is authorized.

*. Notices of "Clerical Changes" may be in time for the above List if sent before November. Every Clergyman should see that his Post-Office Address is correctly given in the List of the Clergy published in the Convention Journal of the Diocese to which he canonically belongs.

N. B.—No HONORARY DEGREES will be inserted in the Clergy List unless the Editor is informed that year, and by what College, they were conferred.

MEANS FOR THE WORK OF MISSIONS.

There are but a few more thoughts to bring before you, and those, perhaps, of a more practical kind. The great argument is the want of means. We have before us the scope of our work. We have seen how much has been done. Let us think now what remains undone. There are, perhaps, 100 millions of Christians, about 300,000,000 on the earth. The common estimate of those that are in heathendom is twice that number. Think nothing done, then, while aught remains. Nothing done till the whole is completed; till the whole earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea. And then we hear, "where are the means?" Dear friends, we never knew any branch of our good English family that ever lacked means to do any whatsoever, however great, which it determined to do. I know that for the purposes of war in the petty war in New Zealand, provoked against the native races, we spent over £7,000,000. I know that for the redemption from captivity (most justly it is true, and most worthy of respect), of forty souls that were taken captive in Abyssinia, the British Government thought it much to spend more than £5,000,000 sterling. I know how these vast works of commercial enterprise—all these great railways, all these great engineering feats of which we boast, are always attended with abundance of means commensurate with the end to be obtained. I have no fear, whatever, that if your hearts be willing you cannot find the means. The means are abundant; the question is, are you prepared to give them? There is no compulsion save that constraining CHARITY of which we have heard. There is no man's taxation, but there is that written law that we should give to Him as freely as we have received; there is that inexhaustible bank which we all may draw—the very essence of our Christianity, the very fulfilment of our Lord's command, that we should deny ourselves in order that we may take up our cross to follow Him, and will any of you here present say that he or she could not, out of their daily personal expenses, save at least one quarter for the service of God, of that which they now spend upon themselves; all that together and tell me whether, even if China were to open all its doors to receive our missionaries, even if Dr. Livingstone would come back from the heart of Africa and tell us that there was a great and effectual door was open for the REDEEMER'S march over the earth, if the whole world were to us as if with one voice, "Come over to us and help us,"—if we only deny ourselves, the means will ever be wanting?—From the Address of the Lord Bishop of Lichfield before the Board of Missions, Oct. 6, 1871.

* Appointed by the House of Bishops.

Among the inhabitants of the United Kingdom are nearly 50,000 Jews, mainly in London and other large towns, who possess 80 synagogues, and about 100 ministers and readers. A few Mohammedans are also found, but they possess no place of worship. The more numerous G. have richly decorated churches in London, Manchester, and Liverpool.—Whitaker's Almanac.

CITY DIRECTORY.

It is not deemed expedient to insert the City Addresses of the Clergy in the Almanac, for the reason that after the first of April or May, when many of the Clergy change their residences, the List would be very incorrect, and thus for eight or nine months of the year unreliable. The addresses of the City Clergy, corrected from month to month, are published in several of the City papers. These Lists may, with very little trouble, be cut out and attached to the Almanac, and be always at hand.

Messrs. NOVELLO, EWER & CO., have the honor to announce that they have opened a Branch Office for the sale of their well-known at the above address.

The rapid growth of musical taste in America, and the increasing desire for procuring the standard works at a moderate price, induce Messrs. Novello to believe that, although the music published by them in London could always be procured through a recognized agent in New York, the time has arrived when it is absolutely necessary to have an Establishment of their own in the City, conducted by those experienced in the London business, so that the supply of the whole of their works may always keep pace with the demand. Catalogues with the prices rendered into American currency will be shortly published, and may be had gratis on application.

THE NEW HYMNAL.

Messrs. POTT, YOUNG & Co. are about publishing several editions of the Church Hymnal, authorized by the late General Convention.

THE EDITIONS WITH THE WORDS ONLY

will embrace some new features which they think will render them very desirable.

They have also in preparation

A Book of Music,

FOR THE

CHURCH HYMNAL,

prepared under the supervision of Mr. J. H. CORNELL, organist of St. Paul's chapel, New York.

The arrangement and compilation of the book will be, as far as practicable, in harmony with the Prospectus originally issued by P., Y. & Co., in reference to the edition of the Hymnal with words and music together. There are various reasons why this has been selected as a substitute for the proposed edition with music; first among them is convenience, both for Organist and Choir; second, a wider range of choice in tunes adapted to each Hymn; third, the despatch with which it can be issued; fourth, its cost, which will be about one-half the price of the edition with music and words printed together.

Messrs. ADAMS, HALLOCK & Co.,

"157 Montague St., Brooklyn, September 20, 1871.

Gentlemen: It gives me pleasure to testify to the fact of the entire satisfaction of all the parties concerned, with the costly Communion Service of silver which was made for this church by your establishment. After receiving plans and specifications from many of the chief houses of New York, we gave the contract without hesitation; and in my own judgment, and also in that of the committee and others thoroughly versed in such matters, the fulfillment of the contract was a success, highly creditable to your taste, skill, and integrity as a business firm.

"Yours truly, "C. H. HALL, "

"Rector of Holy Trinity Church, Brooklyn Heights"

Messrs. ADAMS, HALLOCK & Co.,

"BROOKLYN, April 12th, 1871.

"The Silver Communion Service, made by your establishment, reached us in good time for our next festival. For your promptitude, as well as careful and elegant workmanship, I desire to truly thank you, and in behalf of the Vestry and Congregation of St. Paul's Church I think it only justice to say that the entire set has received their unqualified approval and admiration.

"The pure and thoroughly consistent style of design of these Communion vessels in such harmony with the ecclesiastical features and details of our church edifice has attracted special notice, and the decorative work, the emblems, monograms and engraved legends are executed with artistic finish and elaboration which leave nothing to be desired." It will afford me great pleasure whenever opportunity presents to commend your approved skill and taste in this department of church work.

"I am yours very truly,

"T. R. DROWNE, Rector of St. Paul's Church."

The Bible Commentary

(POPULARLY KNOWN IN ENGLAND AS "THE SPEAKER'S COMMENTARY.")

A Plain Explanatory Exposition of the Holy Scriptures for every Bible Reader.

To be published at regular intervals, in royal octavo volumes, at the uniform price of $5.00 per volume.

WITH OCCASIONAL ILLUSTRATIONS.

THE BIBLE COMMENTARY, the publication of which has just been commenced by CHARLES SCRIBNER & CO., simultaneously with its appearance in England, had its origin in the widely felt want of a plain explanatory Commentary on the Holy Scriptures, which should at once more comprehensive and compact than any now published. Projected in 1893, selection of the scholars to be employed upon it was entrusted to a Committee named by the Speaker of the British House of Commons and the Archbishop of York, and through the Agency of this Committee there has been concentrated upon this great work a combination of force and ability as has not been enlisted in any similar undertaking in England, since the translation of the Authorized Version of the Bible. Of the THIRTY-SIX DIFFERENT DIVINES who are engaged upon the work, nearly all are widely known in this country as well as in England, for their valuable and extensive contributions to the Literature of the Bible, and in this Commentary they combine their varied learning and their most matured judgments.

The great object of the BIBLE COMMENTARY is to put every general reader and student in full possession of whatever information may be necessary to enable him to understand the Holy Scriptures; to give him, as far as possible, the same advantages as the Scholar, and to supply him with satisfactory answers to objections resting upon misrepresentations or misinterpretations of the text. To secure this end most effectually, the Commentary is chiefly explanatory, presenting in a concise and readable form the results of learned investigations carried on during the last century. When fuller discussions of difficult passages or important subjects are necessary, they are placed at the end of the chapter or volume.

The text is reprinted without alteration, from the Authorized Version of 1611, with marginal references and renderings; but the notes forming this Commentary will embody amended translations of passages proved to be incorrect in that version.

The work will be divided into EIGHT SECTIONS, which it is expected will be comprised in as many volumes, and each volume will be a royal octavo. Typographically, special pains have been taken to adapt the work to the use of older readers and students.

N. B.—The American edition of the Bible Commentary is printed from stereotype plates duplicated from those upon which the English edition is printed, and it is fully equal to that in every respect.

THE CHURCHMAN,

With ART SUPPLEMENT for 1874.

ENTITLED

"THE GOOD SHEPHERD."

Per Year, in advance, $3 50. To Clergymen and Divinity Students, $3 00.

A Weekly Periodical, containing each year four times as much reading matter as "Old and New," three and a half times as much as the "Atlantic," nearly five times as much as the "Galaxy" or "Scribner's Monthly," and more than half in excess of "Harper's New Monthly Magazine."

In the kind words of the Bishops of the Church,—

Its conspicuous merits entitle it to the widest circulation."

Its principles are distinct and well known."

It is always high-toned, courteous, scholarly."

It loves the truth."

I rejoice to find it in the families of my diocese."

The general tone and spirit of THE CHURCHMAN have my hearty commendation."

Conducted in the true spirit, and exhibits enterprise, industry, and ability in every number."

Faithful to the Church; free from the wrangling and strife which is the curse of the times."

A sound, judicious, peace-loving, and peace-making Church paper."

Its positive qualities, its ability, its variety, its comprehensive exhibit of foreign news of a highly sort."

Is always a welcome visitor, by reason of the extent, variety, and general soundness of its articles, original and selected."

Adapted especially to the needs of the parish priest, and the multitudes who are not doctrinaire theologians."

Sound in doctrine, Churchly in tone."

One influenced by its teachings cannot but love the Church's doctrine and discipline."

I have always held it in thorough esteem, for the comprehensiveness of its Church intelligence and its dignified tone."

Enterprising spirit, and excellent tone and temper."

Its steady improvement, evidently in fulfilment of a purpose and plan not yet fully realized, entitles it to hearty commendation."

I recognize the patience with which you have been working toward your ideal journal, thank you for it."

I will do, as I always do, all that I can by pen or tongue for THE CHURCHMAN and its stories."

It has my confidence."

One of the most effective instrumentalities now at work to counteract the evil tendencies of a debased and ungodly journalism of the day, and to supply Church families with wholesome reading."

THE ART SUPPLEMENT.

Remarks from the Bishops' letters:

Needs only to be seen to be appreciated."

In design and execution, it is alike praiseworthy."

It is really fine."

Will tend to elevate the popular tone of Christian art."

Of a high order, and worth the entire subscription price of the paper."

An admirable work of art, and will be a fit ornament for any parson or library."

It teaches, at a glance, the same lesson which ought to be found on the pages of a paper."

It speaks of Christ and the Church."

I am delighted with the beautiful picture of 'The Good Shepherd.'"

I value it highly for its superior excellence."

Quite fulfils your promises to your patrons."

Worthy of a conspicuous place in almost any gallery."

Exquisite and suggestive, a picture sermon of the Parable of The Good Shepherd."

THE CHURCH ALMANAC is published annually by the PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL TRACT SOCIETY, and is designed to furnish, besides the usual astronomical and other notices, full information in regard to the institutions of the Church and the several Dioceses.

The Secretaries of the Colleges, Seminaries, incorporated Schools, Church Societies, and Institutions noticed in the Almanac, should send the corrections contain the number of Communicants in each Parish, so far as reported in the Convention Journals.

The Editor requests that his attention may be called to any names which are improperly retained on the List of the Clergy, as, e.g., the names of clergymen deceased or deposed. He will also be glad to receive suggestions for the improvement of the Almanac, but will take no notice of anonymous communications in the Church papers.

TWO KINDS OF PREACHING.—I say, how very much it concerns every human being in that mixed congregation, from the youngest to the oldest, whether the character of the preaching be positive, tending to warn, lift up and advance hearers in faith, in love, in holiness, or whether the character of the preaching be largely negative, disparaging some truth, impeaching some well authenticated fact, viliing at some well accredited belief or practice, or, to use the familiar but expressive phrase of a thoughtful presbyter of this Diocese, "unscrewing things generally," and thus sending the people out of church with only negative impressions, chilled, weakened, doubting, depressed, offended. That such is the difference between what may be termed positive and negative preaching, and, for a like reason, between positive and negative words, from the pastor among the people in private, I need not waste time in proving.—BISHOP POTTER, of New York. Convention Address, 1872.

(1) ASH-WEDNESDAY.—Proper Psalm, A.M., 6, 32, 38; P.M., 102, 130, 143.—Special Prayers before the General Thanksgiving.

(2) LENT.—The Collect for ASH-WEDNESDAY is to be read every day after the Collect for the day.

(3) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders" is to be used daily during this week.

MAKING ONE'S WILL.—Every Christian who has property enough to make it worth while to dictate his last Will and Testament is solemnly bound, before God and the Church, to consecrate a fair proportion of it—never less than a tenth part—to the maintenance of religion. If he have no offspring to provide for, that proportion should be increased . . . . by adopting the Church instead of children. But never, in that solemn act, should the cause of Christ be omitted or forgotten. Never should he fail to place on this last earthly record a testimonial of his faith; nor distribute his possessions without a suitable memorial of his pious gratitude to that God who had so kindly prospered him.—BISHOP HOPKINS. Convention Address, 1857.

THE LARGEST "SPECIMEN."—We have to see many exhibitions of selfishness in this world; but for the largest "specimen," I would suggest a body of six or eight men, all making their living comfortably, some of them counting themselves well-off, anxious, for their souls' sake, or for the growth of their town, or whatever else, to have a clergyman to minister to them,—such a body deliberately making this proposition to a man of like passions with themselves: "Come and be our minister. We have each subscribed from five to fifty dollars or so, to most of us a small percentage on our income, to some of us a half or a tenth of what we spend on our personal indulgences. The aggregate is small, no doubt, and we will not bind ourselves to give a cent more. But our town is growing, and you can preach and visit many into the church who will become contributors. We do not think the risk is any greater than a good minister ought to take."—BISHOP ARMITAGE Convention Address, 1873.

SELECTING HYMNS.—My injunction to you is, as much as possible, to apply the rule to the hymns to be sung that the Church seems to have applied to the Collects, viz.,—that nothing however beautiful, or striking, or true, is properly admissible in public worship, save that which is addressed to GOD in supplication, thanksgiving or adoration.

The application of this rule may exclude much that is strictly individual, much that is purely subjective, and much that might be eminently edifying in private devotion and meditation; but it will give us what we need in the Sanctuary—Common Praise and Common Prayer!—BISHOP R. H. WILMER. Convention Address, 1873.

COMMON PRAYER.—Every year it brings many to the Church; first as her friend for the sake of this service, to become, on better acquaintance, her members and supporters. And what would be the power of the service if in all our congregations were used according to its intention, with all its parts in completeness—the people's part said as solemnly and feelingly as the minister's—said with the full volume of all the voices of the worshippers! That would be a service to cheer and kindle all who should join in it, and move the hearts of all who should hear it. In several of the congregations I can see a marked improvement in the tone and spirit of the worship. But in most of them there is great need of careful attention to this matter, to bring out by full responses the real character of the service as COMMON PRAYER—the people's as well as the minister's spiritual sacrifice, to be offered with inward spirit and heartiness, offered in its completeness in the beauty of holiness.—BISHOP BISSELL. Convention Address, 1873.

A HOUSE OF PRAYER FOR ALL PEOPLE.—Surely the day will come when we will not longer endure the thought of passing in the road, day by day, men for whom we have no room and make no room, and who, for any interest we show them, may choose life or death without pain or pleasure to us. Surely the day must come, a Pentecostal day, the answer to long years of prayer and labor, when our vestries and our lay-people will awake with a start, and realize that men must not be left to perish, or even to pine, because they cannot or will not take a pew. Oh, let our ears once be open to the blessedness of that word, "Come ye blessed . . . I was a stranger," and our conventionalities will be swept away; we will blush to think that for the sake of family association or a cushioned seat we parcelled out God's house among a favored few; the wealthiest will in honor prefer the sons of labor, and the house of God will be in truth a house of prayer for all people.—BISHOP LAY. Convention Address, 1873.

EARLY CONFIRMATION.—The period of life between twelve and sixteen or seventeen years of age is ordinarily full of peril to the souls of the young. . . . There is needed, then, for this period of life the special influence and help which Confirmation is designed to supply. Many a Christian, now mature in age, has reason to thank God that for him the perils of that period were anticipated and guarded against by his early reception into the full communion of the Church. The time has been with him, perhaps, when he was feeling the restraint of his Confirmation vows a little impatiently. But the very impatience showed the necessity of that restraint and its blessing also; that it was keeping him in the strait and narrow way. The experience of the Church is therefore in favor of an earlier age for candidates for Confirmation than was formerly the custom.—BISHOP BISSELL. Convention Address, 1873.

EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Order" is to be used daily during this week.

THE GROWTH OF THE CHURCH.—The Church is growing steadily and permanently. Divine in her origin, and bearing with her the promise "that the gates of hell shall not prevail against her," she has only to be true to her Divine Head teaching His doctrines fearlessly in love; holding fast to the faith once delivered to the saints; maintaining the apostolicity of her ministry; declaring that her sacraments are not mere forms, nor mere signs, but real means of real grace; laboring faithfully among the poor and needy, and the glories of her future no man can prophesy! Earnest souls longing for rest, searching for truth, desire pure, positive doctrine, and an ancient, durable institution. The Church is such an institution, and these are her doctrines! Our duty is to be faithful to both.—BISHOP BECKWITH. Convention Address, 1873.

(1) THANKSGIVING DAY, unless some other day be appointed by the Civil Authority. SPECIAL SENTENCES: PSALM instead of Venite: One of the SELECTIONS, or some other portion of the Psalms, and which may be "said or sung;" the LESSONS, Deuteronomy 8; 1 Thessalonians 5, 12-24. SPECIAL THANKSGIVING, after General Thanksgiving. COLLECT, EPISTLE, and GOSPEL.

(2) ADVENT.—The Collect for the first Sunday in Advent is to be repeated daily in Advent, after the Collect for the day.

THE CLERGYMEN'S MUTUAL INSURANCE LEAGUE.—The precarious tenure which connects the Rector with his Parish is a serious embarrassment in the way of ordinary life insurance, but by the Constitution of this League, that difficulty is almost entirely removed. The system adopted is very simple and practicable, and involves no outlay for offices, buildings, commission of agents, and large salaries for officials.—BISHOP CLARK. Convention Address, 1873.

(1) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders" is to be used daily during this week.

(2) CHRISTMAS DAY.—Proper Psalms, A. M., 19, 45, 85; P. M., 89, 110, 182. Proper Preface in the Communion Office.

(8) CHRISTMAS WEEK.—The Collect for the Feast of the Nativity is to be said daily until New Year's Eve, after the Collect for the day.

CLERICAL SUPPORT.—The truth is, the question is not one of figures and machinery, but one of human hearts and consciences; and we can best meet it in our own fields by taking the case which concerns us personally, and getting that remedied. Let every layman fairly consider his clergyman's salary, and then his own payment towards it, in whatever form. Let simple justice be done, in the fear of God, scouting the apparent theory of some, that self-denial is a matter of clerical patent-right.—BISHOP ARMITAGE. Convention Address, 1873.

The Protestant Episcopal Church

IN THE

---

Our Church traces her descent from the Apostles of our Lord and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST, through the Church of England, to which she has declared herself "indebted, under GOD, for her first foundation and a long continuance of nursing care and protection." It consists now of forty-one confederate Dioceses, under the care of Bishops using the same Liturgy, and yielding obedience to the laws enacted by the General Convention.

---

The General Convention.

This Body, which meets triennially, is composed of the House of Bishops, consisting of all the Diocesan and Missionary Bishops in the American Church; and of the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies, consisting of four Clergymen and four Laymen from each Diocese. *. NO HONORARY DEGREES will be inserted in this List unless the Editor is informed in v year, and by what College, they were conferred.

**. No pains are spared in the effort to make this List accurate in all particulars, but absolute accuracy is here impossible, and for the following reasons: (1). "Clerical Changes" are constantly taking place. (2). The Diocesan Convention Journals do not always give the correct P. O. Address. (3). Many of the Clergy change their Parishes and Post-Offices and neglect to inform the Editor of necessary corrections. (4). Some of the Convention Journals are published six months before the Almanac goes to press, and the Editor cannot always procure Diocesan Clergy Lists, corrected as Oct. 15. (5). Deacons, ordained after the meeting of the Convention of the Diocese to which they long, in many cases fail to send their names for insertion. (6). After the list has left the Editor's hands errors occur in the printing through the falling out or shifting of the type, etc.

***. As the number of the Clergy increases it is more and more important that each Clergy should notify the Editor, in the month of October, of the changes (if any) to be made in the Almanac. Send Postal Cards, care of the Publishers.

TO THE CLERGY.

A number of the Convention Journals are not published when the Almanac goes to press. Some of the Journals give the Parish, but not the P. O. Address of the Clergy. The only sure way, therefore, of having one's Name and Address correctly given in the above Clergy List is to send notice to the Editor of the proper changes to be made. It is not sufficient to send such notice to the Church or Clergy, because the Editor of the Almanac has no means of determining whether the publication of the same is authorized.

* Notices of "Clerical Changes" may be in time for the above List if sent before November 1. Every Clergyman should see that his Post-Office Address is correctly given in the List of the Clergy published in the Convention Journal of the Diocese to which he canonically belongs.

N. B.—No HONORARY DEGREES will be inserted in the Clergy List unless the Editor is informed that year, and by what College, they were conferred.

* The discrepancy in this total (the figures just before given foot up only 39,804), is due to the fact that in several Dioceses the baptisms "not specified" are included in the totals.

*** It is annually a matter of regret to the Editor that he cannot give in this Table the grand total for the whole Church. He is unable to do so because some few of the Diocesan Convention Journals contain no Statistical Summaries for the Conventional Year.

It is greatly to be desired that one page in each Convention Journal should be devoted to "Statistics of the Diocese for the Conventional Year," the same to be compiled from the Episcopal Address, Parochial, Missionary, and other Reports. When this is not done, or when the Journal is distributed by Oct. 15, the Authorities of the Diocese are urgently requested to furnish the items for the two Tables on pages 82 and 83. These Tables and the General Statistical Summary on this page are deemed worthy of reproduction in Appletons' Cyclopaedia (Annual Series), and thus go to make up our history.

THIS VOLUME MAY BE JUSTLY CALLED

"THE ACCEPTED HYMNAL."

For in every Convention, where the hymnal question has come up, with scarcely an exception, it has been unanimously recommended and as cordially accepted almost the very words of one of the Rt. Rev. members of the Committee of compilation—"We heartily acknowledge so stately and royal a visitor, in its garments and substantial worth,"—then adding: "Not many will set themselves as the superiors of Dr. Tucker, to whom were given, in large measure, reverence the love of beauty. We doubt if after this, any new set of tunes will be joined with the hymnal."

Each volume contains Special Lessons for the Christian Seasons, Advent, Christmas, &c. On the completion of the fourth volume, the series will be reissued, carefully revised.

Among the "UNSOUGHT TESTIMONIALS" with which we have been favored are the following:

From a Brother (Presbyter) in South Carolina.

"I am more and more pleased from actual experiment with your system of lessons. I am introducing it into the Sunday School, and into the Bible Classes held in the week, and am myself studying the Bible lesson, and preaching upon it on Sunday mornings.

Renewing his order after some months, the same brother writes:—

"I am more than ever pleased with the working of your plan. Nothing would delight me more than to have the whole congregation interested in your system of Bible and Prayer Book study. The motto of your system, as of our whole Ministry, might be the words of our Master, 'A sower went forth to sow his seed.' 'The seed is the word of God.' Thanking you for the real help you have given me and my people, who are one with you in the Communion of Saints, I remain," &c.

From the Superintendent of a Sunday School in Iowa.

"Your system works most admirably. It is just the thing. Officers and Scholars are delighted with it."

From a Brother in Wisconsin.

"Your S. S. Paper is the actual embodiment of views which I have entertained for some years, and which I have put in force, so far as I could with the imperfect means under my control, in a double lesson—one based upon the Prayer Book, the other upon Scripture; the constant repetition; the use of the P. B. as the manual of doctrine, and the Bible as History; the course laid out in your 'Hints'; these are exactly what I have labored to carry out. I am sure you must succeed in securing the patronage of most of the Sunday Schools in the Church. Economy, precision, system, order, and thoroughness of instruction, all combine to recommend the 'Papers.'"

"I take pleasure in again sending for 100 copies of your truly valuable little sheet, and sincerely hope you may feel such encouragement in your good work as will induce you to continue it; indeed we don't know how we could get along without you now."

HOME SCHOOLS.

In the Keble School at Syracuse, as every year is demonstrating more and more satisfactorily, we have an education of girls and young women up to the highest mark of the best tuition in the country. I pay it, for one, the more outspoken respect, because its clear good sense is quite unsophisticated by the foolish theories which, under one sort of fallacy and another, are threatening modern womanhood in the very process of its nurture, with a sacrifice of its best refinement, its feminine reserve, its Christian charm and strength and peace.

"The Altar Cloth at Grace Church, Brooklyn Heights, of crimson cloth, richly embroidered decorated with pearls and crystals, is the most splendid specimen of the sort we have seen in country. It was made by FRANK SMITH & Co., of London.—The Church Journal, New York, December, 1865.

EXTRACT FROM THE "STANDARD OF THE CROSS,"

[Published at Oberlin, Ohio, November 12, 1870.]

"The editor is in receipt, from Abraham Bininger, 39 Broad Street, New York, 'sample bottle of wine for communion purposes.' It claims to be 'a wine of Oporto, entirely natural and pure, having never been reinforced with brandy or alcohol,' and comes from one of the most highly respected houses in Oporto." We are the highest authority—an authority which all will accept—for assuring our brethren who may be looking for such an article for Communion or Medicinal purposes that Mr. Bininger's representations are those of a Christian man and entirely reliable. The house was established in 1776, and surely ought to be able to get a supply of pure importations if any American house can. The present sample is furnished at $12 per case of one dozen bottles, which is as low as any really fine wine can be sold for. It seems to be every way suitable for the purpose named."

EXTRACT FROM "THE CHURCH JOURNAL "

[Published in New York, November 23, 1870.]

"PURE COMMUNION WINE.—We have received a sample bottle of Oporto wine for Communion purposes, from Mr. Abraham Bininger, of No. 39 Broad Street. It is represented to us as being 'entirely natural and pure, having never been reinforced with brandy or alcohol,' and as coming from 'one of the most highly respected houses in Oporto.' Our knowledge of Mr. Bininger as a Christian gentleman leads us to place the most implicit reliance on his representations; and to commend him with entire confidence to any of the clergy or wardens of churches who may be in search of such an article. The house of Bininger was established in 1776, and its facilities for obtaining pure importations are not surpassed in this country. The present sample is furnished at $12 per case of one dozen bottles."

EXTRACT FROM "THE PROTESTANT CHURCHMAN,"

[Published in New York December 8, 1870.]

"We have reason to suppose that a wretched quality of wine is used as a general thing for Communion purposes. It is doubtful sometimes whether the wine used has in it a particle of the juice of the grape. We are glad therefore, to draw attention to a pure Oporto wine, imported for this special purpose, by Abraham Bininger, 39 Broad Street, New York. We unhesitatingly endorse Mr. Bininger's statements in regard to this wine, as worthy of the utmost confidence. We trust it will add to the influence of this notice when we state that editorial notices in this paper are always without remuneration. No consideration but that of the merits of the case can procure an editorial commendation in these columns. We cheerfully publish this notice because we believe we are conferring a benefit upon the Church by doing."

[The following is from an esteemed Clergyman of the Church.]

REASONS WHY I LIKE "THE CHURCH JOURNAL AND MESSENGER."

1. It is not anonymous. The names of the editors are given, and those of many of the contributors.
2. Though considerable scope is allowed in discussion, those who edit and write for the paper are Churchmen.
3. It has definite principles, and is not afraid to utter them.
4. Ability, common sense, and care, are used in the selection of articles and news items.
5. It advocates the old truth for this age, and speaks as with a living voice to living men.
6. Its interests are not confined to a Diocese.
7. It contains a large amount of reading matter, in good type, is well printed, and convenient in size.
8. No other paper in the United States possesses all its advantages; while it combines nearly all, or quite all, the excellencies of other Church papers.

ADVERTISEMENT.

THE CHURCH ALMANAC is published annually by the PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL TRACT SOCIETY, and is designed to furnish, besides the usual astronomical and other notices, full information in regard to the institutions of the Church and the several Dioceses.

The Rev. Clergy, whose Names, Parishes, or P.O. Addresses are not correctly or fully given in some one of the Convention Journals published by Oct. 1 in each year, should not fail, on or before that date, to send notice to the Editor of the changes to be made in the new Almanac. When this is not done, he is not to be held responsible for inaccuracies in the Clergy and Parish Lists.

Notices of "Clerical Changes," for use in the preparation of the Parish List (which will be published early in December, bound up with the Almanac), may be sent as late as November 1. The next Parish List will contain the number of Communicants in each Parish, so far as reported in the Convention Journals.

The Editor requests that his attention may be called to any names which are improperly retained on the List of the Clergy, as, e.g., the names of Clergymen deceased or deposed.

In view of the fact that no "Official List" of the Clergy of the whole Church is published, it is important that the Annual List in the Almanac should be full and accurate. The Editor will not knowingly insert the names of Clergymen who are not canonically connected with the American Church, nor omit the names of any who are not regularly deposed. In this connection, he ventures to suggest that "Notices of Deposition" be sent to him as well as to the parties named in the Canon.

A Table of the SUNDAYS AND HOLY DAYS FOR 1880 will be found on page 6.

The usual tables of Church Statistics, and the General Statistical Summary, will be found after the List of Clergy.

A list of Church Periodicals, and a City Directory, containing the Addresses of the Clergy in the principal Cities, are also given at the end of the Almanac.

Only INCORPORATED schools can be inserted under "Diocesan Institutions."

All communications for the Almanac, except Orders and Advertisements, should be sent direct to the Editor, care of the Publishers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1, 1879.

* * Orders for the Almanac (retail price 15 cents, which includes postage), or the Parish List (price 40 cents, which includes postage), must be sent to Messrs. Pott, Young & Co., Cooper Union, Fourth Avenue, New York, who also receive applications for Advertisements.

Almanac for 1880.

The Child is father of the Man;
And I could wish my days to be Bound each to each by natural piety.

* 1-15 indicates that the first fourteen verses are to be read. All similar abbreviations are to be interpreted in like manner.

(1) The same Collect, Epistle and Gospel shall serve for every day after, unto the Epiphany.

SYSTEMATIC GIVING.—Christians should give not by chance, in spasmodic ways, like children carried about by a momentary feeling, but according to reason—deliberately, with conscientious forecast, and upon some chosen method. So wisdom and the apostolic "order" "unto the Churches in Galatia," and to the Church in Corinth, unite in favor of a definite weekly sum for each to "lay by" the first day of the week." Of course the sum will be fixed and varied by the individual himself.—BISHOP NILES, Convention Address, 1878.

1) ASH-WEDNESDAY.—Proper Psalm, A.M., 6, 33, 38; P.M., 103, 130, 143.—Special Prayers before General Thanksgiving.

2) LENT.—The Collect for ASH-WEDNESDAY is to be read every day after the Collect for the day.

3) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers, "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders," to be used daily during this week.

GOOD WORDS.—The pressure from without is such that we cannot afford to waste our strength in controversy upon points which do not pertain to the substance of the faith. I wonder at the prominence given to certain questions of ritual and dogma in an age when the vital matter at issue is one which strikes the very citadel of all forms of true religion. The hour has come when, forgetting all our minor differences, we must rally around the Captain of our salvation, and resolve to fight in defence of the Cross. In this contest, he that is not with us is against us, and he that is not against us is with us.—BISHOP CLARK, Convention Address, 1879.

(1) GOOD FRIDAY.—Proper Psalms, A.M., 22, 40, 54; P.M., 64, 88.

(2) EASTER DAY.—Anthems instead of the Venite. Proper Psalms, A.M., 2, 57, 111; P.M. 113, 114, 118. Proper Preface in the Communion Office. The Nicene Creed may with propriety be said on this and the other high festivals, and on all Holy-days which relate to the Blessed Saviour.

WHOLESOME WORDS.—No true Bishop will ever seek to lord it over God's heritage. No devout and reverent Priest will ever make his own self-will the measure of his duty. No layman worthy of the name will ever refuse personal effort and a free-will offering for the support of his Pastor and the work of the Church, because everything in the Parish and in the Diocese is not in strict accordance with his will, or fancy, or desire. And surely no Parish will refuse to do its allotted constitutional, canonical work in that Diocesan body of which it is a constituent part, unless unreasoning prejudice holds sway.—BISHOP WELLES, Convention Address, 1879.

THE CATHEDRAL, to be of any value, must be always contemplating work—hard, honest work. It can be no place for idle dignities. The Bishop must be the head of missionary activity. His free church must not only have open doors, but ministers who will go out into the streets and lanes of the city, and compel them to come in that God's house may be full. To do this, the Bishop must have the heart and the ability to bring about him those with whom he can work with confidence and cordiality. He must be able to invite and induce self-sacrifice and devout enthusiasm, such as shall make the love of souls in the midst of the spiritual death and barrenness of a great city rise above considerations of place and emoluments, of ease and comfort, and even of exemption from censure and cruel misjudgment.—BISHOP KELLES, Convention Address, 1879.

(3) TRINITY SUNDAY.—Proper Preface in the Communion Office.

INTEREST FOR MISSIONS.—A diocese, a parish, cannot be made to prosper simply caring for its own special interests. Look wherever you will, and find a parish that is indeed flourishing, with inward spiritual growth, as well as outward expansion, and you will find one that is full of interest for the missions of the Church, and of activity for their promotion; one which feels strongly the common life of the Body, and exercises the functions of that life in the way appointed by its divine Author.—BISHOP BISSELL, Convention Address, 1879.

THE TITHE.—It is the duty of every Christian person to be all the time aiding in the extension of the Redeemer's Kingdom; to give cheerfully—to give freely. They have received, freely let them give. Let them give with an habitual self-sacrifice. Let them give as God has prospered them. Let them give according to the fixed rule. A tenth is what God requires; he who gives it is on the road to health.—BISHOP QUINTARD, Convention Address, 1879.

PRACTICAL BENEFICENCE is the true articulus stantis vel cadentis ecclesie.

Christian zeal without the cup of water in its hand is a mockery. But let us forget that the cup must first be filled from the fountain of love. The Bishop of Kerry beautifully says, "every battle-field, and hospital, and mission, and crowded city bears witness that tears shed beneath the Cross, as the Christ-ideal melts into the world, are the rains which quicken the harvests of human charity."—BISHOP McLAUGHLIN, Convention Address, 1879.

CLERICAL CHANGES.—We demand, now, men who can “draw houses,” and “fill pews,” and thus pay their own salaries, after the manner of “stars” at the theatre, saving congregations and vestries all trouble about the “running expenses” of the parish, rather than men imbued with the spirit of the Master, and zealous for the salvation of souls, without thought of self! What an estimate does this reveal of the high calling and the high responsibilities of the ministry of Christ! What an idea does it present of the purpose of the Lord in ordaining such a minister for the world, and of the real needs of a congregation of immortal souls; that the need is pleasure, entertainment and not salvation through Christ's atoning blood, and through his Church and Sacraments!—BISHOP TALBOT, Convention Address, 1879.

COMMON WORSHIP.—The Church will never gain upon a community; never impress upon it the beauty of holiness in its almost inspired liturgy, while the laity sit idly by to be preached to, sung to, and prayed for, instead of praying and singing themselves with the clergy and the choir. There is no stronger obligation laid upon the clergy than upon them, by the rubrical law, to take their appointed part in our public worship. It is Common Prayer and Common Praise; appointed, that is, to be said and sung by priest and people; "common" to both. What idea would a stranger to the church obtain, concerning the advantages of common worship in some of our congregations, where a response is scarcely heard—an audible and loud amen, never?—BISHOP TALBOT, Convention Address, 1879.

(1) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers, "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Communion," is to be used daily during this week.

SELF-CONSECRATION.—We want self-sacrifice more than opportunity, a courageous strength at the oars more than turns in the tide. People dispute whether there is more need, in the Kingdom of God on the earth, of men or money. When we see the money coming lavishly, we may be sure of men not far behind; and when the men come, giving themselves, the money will not be long kept back. Love for the Lord is one holy passion. True self-consecration includes everything we are and everything we have.—BISHOP HUNTINGTON, Convention Address, 1879.

THE STEWARDSHIP OF MONEY.—It is a well-established law of God's kingdom that one-tenth part of our income, at the very least, belongs to Him for the uses of His poor and of His Church. Until that tenth part is separated and set apart for a sacred use, we have no right to touch any part of our substance for our own private use. I do not say that the benefactions of a Christian are to be absolutely limited to one-tenth part of his income. That was the measure prescribed by the Mosaic law. The children of Israel had not seen what we have seen—the eternal Son of God becoming Man, and suffering on the cross for our redemption; “He who was rich making Himself poor, that we might be eternally rich.” No wonder that that ever blessed Saviour said to His hearers before He went forth to suffer for us, “If ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon (the perishable riches), who will commit to your trust the true riches?”—BISHOP POTTER, of New York, Convention address, 1879.

SPECIAL SENTENCES: PSALM instead of Venite: One of the SELECTIONS, or some other portion of the Psalms, and which may be "said or sung;" the LESSONS, Deuteronomy 8; 1 Thessalonians 5: 12-24. SPECIAL THANKSGIVING, after General Thanksgiving. COLLECT, EPISTLE, and GOSPEL.

(2) The Collect, Epistle and Gospel for the twenty-fifth Sunday after Trinity are to be used.

(3) ADVENT.—The Collect for the first Sunday in Advent is to be repeated daily in Advent, after the Collect for the day.

FEAST OF ALL SAINTS.—Very full of comfort is the thought that the saints in the militant Church do hold communion with the saints departed. "I believe, O most holy Jesus," is the devout language of saintly Bishop Ken, "I believe that Thy saints here below have communion with Thy saints above; they praying for us in Paradise—we here on earth celebrating their memorials, rejoicing at their bliss, giving thanks for their labors of love, and imitating their examples." And so this festival is a festival of hope and joy.—BISHOP QUINTARD, Convention Address, 1879.

(1) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers, "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders," is to be used daily during this week.

(2) CHRISTMAS DAY.—Proper Psalms, A.M., 19, 45, 85; P.M., 89, 110, 132. Proper Preface in the Communion Office.

(3) CHRISTMAS WEEK.—The Collect for the Feast of the Nativity is to be said daily until New Year's Eve, after the Collect for the day.

THE TENTH.—I do not pretend—I do not dare to suggest what ought to be the extent of a Christian's benefactions; but this I do say, under all the responsibilities of my sacred office, that we have no purely personal rights over the substance which God's gracious providence has cast into our lap until we have first separated and set apart at least one-tenth part for sacred uses. Surely it is not a hard or severe apportionment: one-tenth for God, the Giver, His poor and His Church; nine-tenths for our own personal use!—BISHOP POTTER, of New York, Convention Address, 1879.

SUCCESSION OF BISHOPS.*

The terms, Apostolical Succession, and Succession of Bishops, are not convertible. By the first is understood the transmission of Episcopal powers and rights from the original consecrators, the Holy Apostles, or rather from Christ the Head, through the line of succeeding Consecrators to the present Bishops in the Church of God. This succession, owing to the defects of Registers in remote times, and to other causes, may not easily be traced through all its several steps; but the known laws by which consecrations were governed do afford the very highest degree of probable evidence in its support. The Succession of Bishops, on the other hand, is a succession of officers occupying the same See or the same relative position in their respective Churches; and it is useful as showing the permanent existence, through all ages of the Church, of the Episcopal Order. Such lists, if complete, would run up from all the existing Sees in Christendom till they merged in the main branches, from which they are offshoots, or in the Apostolical Sees which received Bishops from the hands of the Apostles. Lists of the Succession of Bishops are here given in illustration, through three distinct periods:

A succession of Bishops may also be traced from St. James, the first Bishop of Jerusalem, to the American Bishops, viz.: in the See of Jerusalem to John III., the 51st Bishop, who, in the year 523, consecrated David, Archbishop of St. David's, in Wales; and in the See of St. David's to the present time; or to the period of the Reformation, when it comes through Matthew Parker and his associates.

* Who, while Bishop of London, consecrated James Sharpe Archbishop of St. Andrew's.
 † The American Bishops are on a footing of entire equality as to Episcopal rights; but certain duties of an executive character devolve on the one who happens to be senior in the Episcopate.

THE CLERGYMEN'S MUTUAL INSURANCE LEAGUE combines the two elements of self-protection and brotherly charity. It has paid to the families of three of our deceased Clergy, between $4,000 and $5,000; in one case, this payment affords the entire sum upon which the widow and child can rely for support. But the Clergy are not able, always, to keep up the payment of $2 upon the death of a member. For that reason, Mr. _____ surrendered his rights a year ago; and the consequence of this is, that his widow and three young children are left absolutely dependent. Now what layman is there, who, in case his Pastor could not pay so small a sum, would not willingly pay it for him, considering the end in view? * * * * * Let it be ascertained by all our parishes whether their Rectors are members of this League. If they are, see to it that their policies do not lapse when so insignificant a sum will keep them alive. If they are not, see that they become, and then keep them members.—BISHOP TALBOT, Convention Address, 1878.

The Protestant Episcopal Church

IN THE

---

THIS Church traces her descent from the Apostles of our Lord and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST, through the Church of England, to which she has declared herself "indebted, under GOD, for her first foundation, and a long continuance of nursing care and protection." It consists now of forty-eight confederated Dioceses, under the care of Bishops, using the same Liturgy and yielding obedience to the Canons enacted by the General Convention.

---

The General Convention.

This Body, which meets triennially, is composed of the House of Bishops, consisting of all the Diocesan and Missionary Bishops in the American Church; and of the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies, consisting of four Clergymen and four Laymen from each Diocese. It legislates for the American Church within the limits of the United States, but can make no alteration in the Constitution, or in the liturgy and Offices, unless the same has been adopted in one Convention, and submitted to all the Dioceses, and afterwards adopted in another Convention.

THE CHURCH ALMANAC, 1830-1880.

It is believed that no Almanac was issued for the year 1833, its preparation having been prevented by the prevalence of Asiatic cholera in New York in 1832. This Almanac is, accordingly, the seventeenth centennial number. The Almanacs for 1830, '31, and '32, were probably prepared by the late Bishop of Maryland and his valued co-laborer the Rev. Dr. Van Ingen. In 1833 the Rev. Dr. Schroeder became editor and prepared the numbers for 1834, '35, '36, '37, and '38. The numbers for 1839 and 1840 were prepared by the Rev. John W. Brown, of Astoria, L. I. Up to this time the Almanac had been issued by the Protestant Episcopal Press and had borne the name of The Churchman's Almanac. It now passed into the hands of "The Protestant Episcopal Tract Society," and the title was changed to THE CHURCH ALMANAC. Its editors, since 1841, have been B. I. H., J. D. C., W. T. W., E. M. P., and W. G. F. This information is given by request, and the present editor will be glad to hear from any one who possesses the fifty numbers complete.

TO THE CLERGY.

A number of the Convention Journals are not published when the Almanac goes to press. Some of the Journals give the Parish, but not the P. O. Address of the Clergy. The only sure way, therefore, of having one's Name and Address correctly given in the above Clergy List is to send notice to the Editor of the proper changes to be made. It is not sufficient to send such notice to the Clergy papers, because the Editor of the Almanac has no means of determining whether the publication of the same is authorized.

*.* Notices of "Clerical Changes" may be in time for the above List if sent before November 1st. Every Clergyman should see that his Post-Office Address is correctly given in the List of the Clergy published in the Convention Journal of the Diocese to which he canonically belongs.

*.* No pains are spared in the effort to make this List accurate in all particulars, but absolute accuracy is here impossible, and for the following reasons: (1). "Clerical Changes" are constantly taking place. (2). The Diocesan Convention Journals do not always give the correct P. O. Address. (3). Many of the Clergy change their Parishes and Post-Offices and neglect to inform the Editor of necessary corrections. (4). Some of the Convention Journals are published six months before the Almanac goes to press, and the Editor cannot always procure Diocesan Clergy Lists, corrected as of Oct. 15. (5). Deacons, ordained after the meeting of the Convention of the Diocese to which they belong, in many cases fail to send their names for insertion. (6). After the list has left the Editor's hands errors occur in the printing through the falling out or shifting of the type, etc.

N. B.—No HONORARY DEGREES will be inserted in the Clergy List unless the Editor is informed in what year, and by what College, they were conferred.

*. It is annually a matter of regret to the Editor that he cannot give in Table the grand totals for the whole Church. He is unable to do so because of the Diocesan Convention Journals contain no Statistical Summaries for Conventional Year. Will not the Clergy see that this matter is attended to in their respective Dioceses?

It is greatly to be desired that one page in each Convention Journal should be devoted to the “Statistics of the Diocese for the Conventional Year,” the same to be compiled from the Episcopal Address, Parochial, Missionary, and other Reports. When this is not done, or when the Journal is not distributed by Oct. 15, the Authorities of the Diocese are urgently requested to furnish the items for the Tables on pages 92 and 93.

* The discrepancy in this total (the figures just before given foot up only 40,321), is due to the fact that in several Dioceses the baptisms “not specified” are included in the totals.

THE CHURCHMAN was established about a third of a century ago, and its existence was continued under different names until the year 1866, when it was purchased by the present proprietors, and from that time on has enjoyed uniform prosperity. Its growth is due to the determined perseverance of the managers in their endeavor to make THE CHURCHMAN a religious paper which should exhibit, in all matters pertaining to its specialty, the enterprise and literary excellence of the best secular journals.

It occupies confessedly the first rank among religious and literary weeklies.

In effect, a weekly journal of high character is a magazine, made up of matter which merits presentation as much as any of the best monthlies or quarterlies. Therefore its form should be adapted to this. Recognizing the principle, the managers of THE CHURCHMAN adopted its present shape and size. It contains thirty-two pages, nine by thirteen inches in size, and is sent to subscribers most conveniently pasted and folded. The folding, the pasting, and the cutting are done by one process, on a machine built expressly for THE CHURCHMAN.

THE CHURCHMAN is the reliable exponent of the attitude and the principles of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

It represents adequately the entire church, and is not an organ for the dissemination of merely party principles, or the opinions of one man or of one clique. It gives, week by week, with remarkable promptness, all Church news, and treats ably the civil topics of the day as viewed from a churchman's standpoint.

In brief, THE CHURCHMAN is a weekly magazine of ecclesiastical intelligence and devotional and general reading, and is the largest and most widely-circulated weekly in the Protestant Episcopal Church.

The system of selecting goods from samples mailed free by city merchants, and of receiving them out of New York by mail or express, just as they are delivered in the city by wagons, works so well that a lady is under no necessity of buying where she may happen to be. True, many articles cannot be sampled at all—gloves and furs, for example—and many others cannot be fully judged of from samples, as carpets, upholstery, laces, etc. But this is only an obstacle to be overcome: a far-seeing merchant does not permit trifles to obstruct a trade whose field is a continent and whose object is the supply of the every-day wants of forty millions of people.

LORD & TAYLOR place their great facilities at the service of buyers everywhere. Samples are sent, if practicable; if not, other means are used to insure a correct and advantageous supply of whatever may be wanted, from a pair of shoes to the furnishing of a house—from the matching of a ribbon to a complete outfit. Not the village store, but a great city warehouse, is thus brought to the very door of the remotest country homes.

Those who are accustomed to buy of country merchants little imagine what constitutes the stock of a great dry goods store. It is not enough that the goods are new, they must be good as well. It is not enough that they are good, they must be fashionable; and nothing is fashionable that is not fresh from the maker. A country merchant dare not get new goods in till the old ones are sold; but the city merchant must not let anything ever become old on his hands; he whose rent is one or two thousand dollars a week will not encumber his shelves with slow goods. If a particular article will not sell at a profit, it must go at a loss, and quickly too, or the loss will be greater; it must be sold, and his way of selling it is to mark it down. In this way all wants are served: those who want the newest articles get them in perfection at the quick selling city-prices, and those who have less regard to style and want their money to go still further, can generally find among the marked-down goods, at half or two-thirds country prices, what may still be fairly fresh.

Heavy expenses do not make high prices, then? Not if the business be large enough. The first requisite of a successful business is, that prices be under rather than over the market. The best of all advertisements is to be under the market: the worst burden is to be over the market. If a merchant has been conspicuously successful for fifty years it may be safely assumed that his store is a good place to buy at. He keeps costly goods at prices which seem high to those who are accustomed to plain goods only; but his heaviest stocks are of plain goods, and his prices are so exactly right that he will not budge a cent. Everything is marked in plain figures, and there is no deviation. For the purpose of buying, a letter written is as good as a journey to New York.

But how are buyer and seller to exchange money and goods and both be certain of their own? Clearly one must trust the other; and as it is out of the question for the merchant to deal on a basis of promiscuous confidence, the customer must make the merchant secure. As a considerable confidence is reposed in the merchant, he is under the greatest necessity of satisfying his customers: if he does not satisfy them, he must receive back his goods and return the money paid for them. THUS THERE SPRINGS UP BETWEEN DISTANT STRANGERS A TRADE INVOLVING THE EXERCISE OF THE HIGHEST COMMERCIAL WISDOM AND CONFIDENCE—A GUARANTEE OF SATISFACTION TO THE BUYER.

This is wise policy, because it wins confidence—and confidence is everything. Everybody knows the city merchant CAN serve a country customer: everybody does not know that he WILL do so. But if he receives back his goods and refund money when called on to do so, everybody DOES know that he systematically and always serves everybody honorably and well, and that is enough—he secures the trade.

Trade by mail and express has been carried on for many years for the supply of remote and sparsely-settled regions, and, with the recent increase in postal facilities, has extended to every part of the country, including the cities. They who are in the habit of getting their supplies in this way find it so convenient and advantageous that they send even for the smallest wants without waiting to lump them together, the small packages being sent by mail, unless express is preferred by the buyer.

LORD & TAYLOR publish a catalogue enumerating the articles which are regularly kept in stock, illustrating many of them, and stating prices when prices can be stated. In the case of articles so fluctuating in style, material, make or price that they cannot be described singly and priced, the kind is mentioned; and prices may at any time be learned by letter.

In this way their whole stock is almost placed before the eyes of their customers wherever they may be, and more information is given about it than could be communicated if they were present in the store itself without the catalogue.

The following are the kinds of goods :

Silks,
Satins,
Velvets,
Dress Goods,

Suits and Wrappers (49 engravings in catalogue),

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

"No one can read it without feeling that Mrs. Tait was a remarkable woman. The Archbishop does not dwell much upon her character. He tells the simple story of what she did; her unwearied activity in every good cause; but these quiet annals reveal, plainly enough, the sincerity of her purpose and the earnestness of her devotion."—The Churchman.

"The Memoir of Catharine and Crawford Tait is a life history which should find its place in every home as a lesson not only of submission and faith, but also of the still rarer virtues of Christian character and toleration."—Literary World.

"Catharine and Crawford Tait is a book which we value. As a simple glance at the life of a gifted mother and son, it would repay perusal."—The Congregationalist.

"This volume can scarcely fail to be read widely and with deep interest, and America will not be behind the old country in its appreciation of a most touching memorial. It is difficult to put down volume when once taken in hand; still more difficult to get through it without emotion."—London Times.

THE TREATMENT OF THE OPIUM HABIT A SPECIALTY.

President and Consulting Physician—THEODORE L. MASON, M.D., President of the "College of Physicians and Surgeons," Department of the Long Island College Hospital." Attendant Physician—L. D. MASON, M.D., assisted by a staff of resident physicians. Superintendent—Rev. J. WILLETT.

THE BUILDINGS are constructed for this special purpose, and they are more complete and better adapted for the treatment of Dipomania and the Opium Habit than those of any similar institution in existence. They are situated on one of the most attractive points on the Bay of New York, and on a high bluff within one thousand feet of the Narrows, commanding a full view of the whole East Shore of Staten Island, also the broad expanse of the Upper and Lower Bay, dotted with the repetitive sails of all nations, and inclosed on the horizon by the blue outlines of the Jersey Coast to North and the Atlantic Ocean to the South. There are separate dining rooms, lodging rooms, and parlors, billiard and bath rooms. There is also a lecture room for religious services, readings, concerts, etc. All the New York morning and several other newspapers and periodicals are regularly taken.

THE MANAGEMENT is systematic, thorough, and adequate. There has been no change in the staff of medical or other active officers since the inauguration of the Home, eleven years ago.

THE CLASSIFICATION of patients originated with and is peculiar to this institution. It is determined and regulated upon a strictly commercial basis, it is made to depend upon the character of the lodging, board, and other accommodations which the patients or their friends are willing to pay.

By this equitable arrangement we are enabled to offer board, washing, and medical attendance at rates varying from $9 to $35 per week. Those paying $14 and upwards, according to size and situation of quarters selected, are provided with a single apartment and a seat at table in private dining room. The accommodations in the select rooms and the table being in every respect equal to those of a class hotel. Rooms in suit may be had upon terms to be agreed upon.

REMARKABLE IMMUNITY FROM DEATH—The total death-rate since the opening has been half of one per cent. or one death to every two hundred patients. The total deaths of legal cases for treatment in the Home has been only one case in eight hundred during the same period. Most were dying when admitted.

THE RESTRAINTS—Our system of restraint is compatible with the fullest liberty for each patient to avail himself of all the recreation, amusement, and enjoyment which the billiard room, and ball grounds, readings, lectures, concerts, musical exercises, etc., coupled with the society of intelligent and agreeable fellow inmates, can impart.

THE DISCIPLINE—The established code of discipline is comprehended in the observance of the "law of propriety," as universally understood by gentlemen and ladies in the guidance of well-regulated family and social relationships. Patients are received either on their application or by due process of law. For mode and terms of admission, apply to the Rev. J. WILLETT, Superintendent, at the Institution, Fort Hamilton (L.I.), New York.

Two daily mails, and telegraphic communication to all parts of the country.

HOW TO REACH THE INSTITUTION FROM NEW YORK:—Cross the East River to Brooklyn on Fulton Ferry Boat and proceed either by Court street or Third avenue Horse Cars; or, cross the South Ferry on Hamilton Avenue Boat and proceed by Fort Hamilton Cars.

Extract from the Report of the Examination of the Company made January, 1877, by Hon. Jno. A. McCall, Jr., Deputy Superintendent.

"The very satisfactory condition of the Company, is attributable to the management of its affairs by able, prudent, and honorable men. It gives me pleasure to state that in a minute and exacting investigation I find nothing to condemn; but, on the contrary, much to commend. Complete schedules of mortgages, deferred premiums, and real estate investments as of December 31, 1876, being the date of examination, have been placed on file in the department.

It is needless at this late day to inquire into the wonderful favour which metook from its very start. Doubtless to its newer—and to many even now—less known, much of it is due. Many of them at great cost were secured specially for the new hymnal, not a few were brought first to light in this country, through the untiring industry of its Editor. Upwards of 35,000 of these little books have now been printed, and the BISHOP of ROCHESTER has been pleased to say: "Whoever sent me a copy of the "Children's Hymnal" by my old and dear friend, Dr. Tucker, I beg to thank most warmly. It came upon me quite by surprise—I am delighted with it. It is a beauty—everything in it so refined and elevated."

From the Southern Churchman.

"This beautifully printed book is edited by the Rev. Dr. Tucker. He is the author of the best and most popular Hymnal with music that has appeared."

From the Standard of the Cross.

"This is so handsome a volume, externally and internally, that it cannot want for readers, even if the hymns and music were indifferent; and these last are so good that they would have a large patronage if clothed in the plainest garb. Those who are familiar with Tucker's Hymnal need only be assured that, in paper, print, and binding, The Children's Hymnal is an advance even on the Hymnal itself."

From the Church Eclectic.

"It is enough to say of the Children's Hymnal with tunes, that the compilation and selection of its music and hymns is by Dr. Tucker, and nothing is left undone by printers, engravers, and binders to make a beautiful book."

"Its music, while necessarily possessing more lightness than that of a hymnal for church service, consists of pure melodies that will wear, and of harmonies which are thoroughly scientific, and hence will be constantly educating the ear and cultivating taste."

"As a specimen of book-making, it is one of the handsomest musical hymnals ever published in the English language."

THE BERMUDA ISLANDS,

Situated S. E. 700 miles from New York, and on the Southern edge of the great Gulf Stream, have a wonderfully equal temperature of about 70° from November to July. The scenery is varied with cultivated and wooded hills, and deep inlets of the ocean. The society is unexcelled in any British Colony. The Church of England is the predominating religion, and several of the Clergy of the United States, who have visited the Islands, have been well received. Communication is now made fortnightly by the fine English steamers of the Quebec and Gulf Ports S. S. Company, of which Messrs. A. E. OUTERBRIDGE & CO. are Agents, No. 29 Broadway, New York, from whom pamphlets and other particulars can be obtained.

The Company are also running steamers to Porto Rico and St. Thomas, Martinique, Barbadoes and Trinidad, sailing from New York on each route every third Saturday.
